Hi everyone, I first want to start off by saying this response is going to go into heavy personal information on my side of the situation, including my past suicide attempt and my past sexual assault. Please be warned before proceeding. Heads up, this document is predominantly so long because of screenshots taking up space. The document is in timeline order, so please read it from start to finish and not skip around or you will miss important context.

This should never have gone public, because ultimately, it was a fallout between two best friends that no longer trusted each other, hurt each other, and one side decided to make it the world's business. I don't know why she needed to when over the past six weeks since I took my hiatus after my suicide attempt, I have never spoken her name to a soul first and had moved on with my life. I'm glad to still be here and hoping to move on finally after all of this. However, she continued to spiral and refused to take any extended olive branch through neutral third parties, so now we are here, and I am going to show you every single shred of evidence I have, including recordings and screenshots with her I have and recount my side of the situation.

I want to start off by saying that Radia has deleted every single DM she has ever sent to me on discord. If not for the fact I had backed several of them up for fear she would attempt to cancel me publicly and to protect myself, I would have nothing anymore and only her curated screenshots to paint me in the worst picture imaginable. Here is proof of her removing all messages to me:

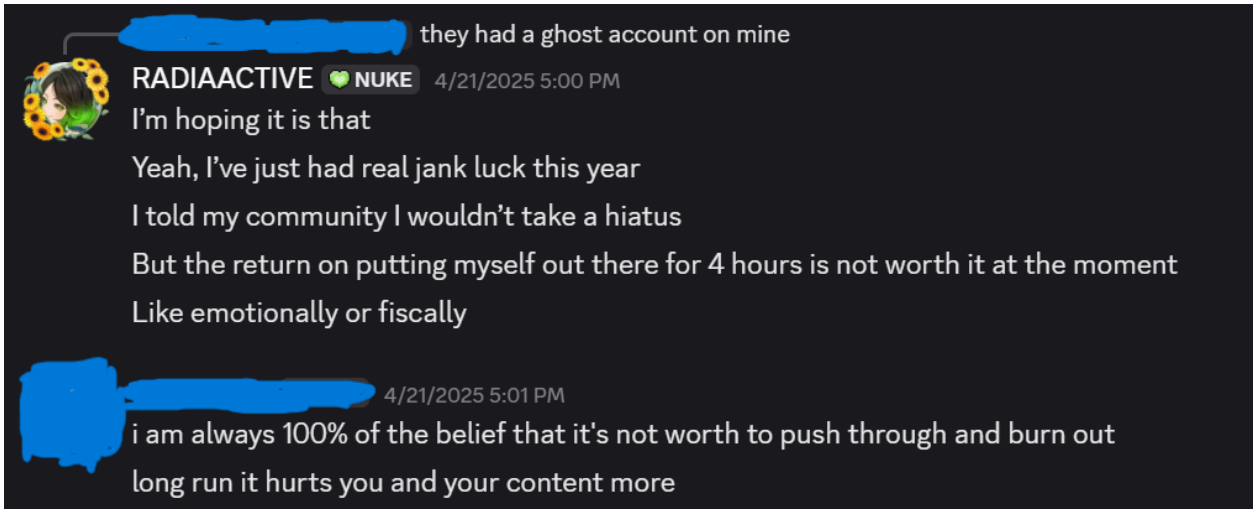
The Beginning:

In Project STIM, myself, Pomatomaster, and Fenarimori had begun to have issues over the previous months with Radiaactive's behavior. She had spoken to us about several issues over things such as being ungrateful towards her community for not giving her enough money, while saying this before us while myself, Pomatomaster, and Fenari had to deal with our own financial issues. This happened multiple times, including during the Project STIM debut stream on her channel that we all agreed to do together. During this stream she ended up yelling at a chat member for saying "I won't feel sorry for you" to one of Aliciaxlife's community members when the conversation at hand was about giving money to the members of Project STIM and our friends. I do not have possession of this clip, and hope one can come forward by an involved party that has the clip. Below is another one of the conversations we had in the past in regards to her not wanting to stream because "she isn't making enough money". An unrelated party has been censored as they are not a member of Project STIM, but this was not the first or last conversation we had ever had with Radia about money or her telling us she did not feel supported by her community. Here is one that was discussed over text.



they had a ghost account on mine

I'm hoping it is that
Yeah, I've just had real jank luck this year
I told my community I wouldn't take a hiatus
But the return on putting myself out there for 4 hours is not worth it at the moment
Like emotionally or fiscally
4/21/2025 5:01 PM
i am always 100% of the belief that it's not worth to push through and burn out long run it hurts you and your content more

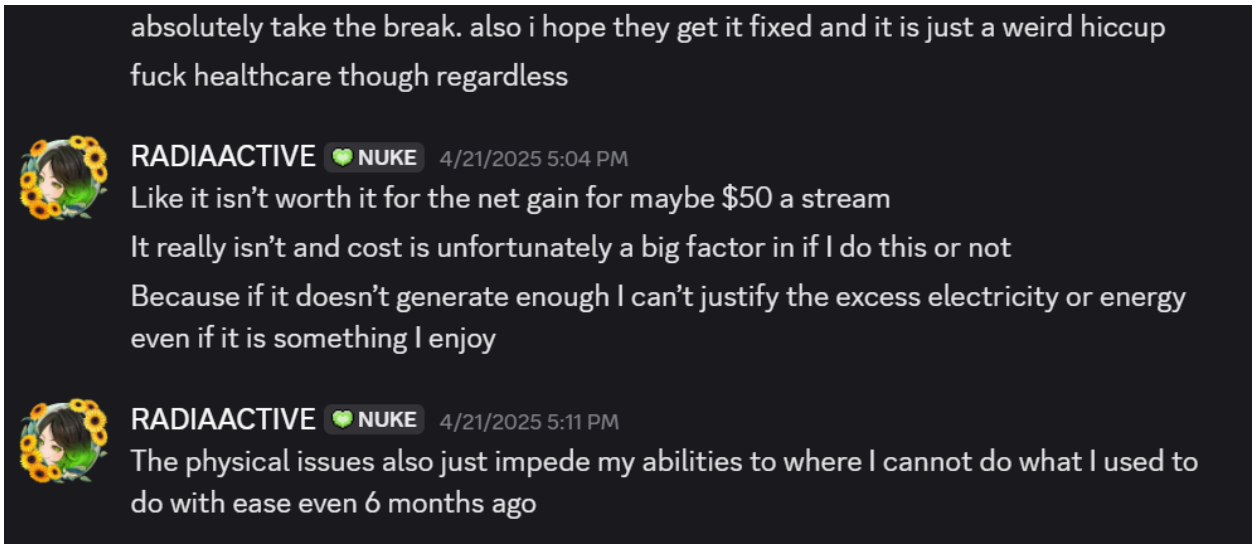
Below is her mentioning streaming isn't worth it if she only makes $50 dollars a stream. This was an issue we had to deal with and one I had to talk her down multiple times, often in voice, however this time was in text so I am able to share this now.



absolutely take the break. also i hope they get it fixed and it is just a weird hiccup fuck healthcare though regardless
RADIAACTIVE NUKE 4/21/2025 5:04 PM
Like it isn't worth it for the net gain for maybe $50 a stream
It really isn't and cost is unfortunately a big factor in if I do this or not Because if it doesn't generate enough I can't justify the excess electricity or energy even if it is something I enjoy
RADIAACTIVE NUKE 4/21/2025 5:11 PM
The physical issues also just impede my abilities to where I cannot do what I used to do with ease even 6 months ago

Adora Bunny LOP 4/21/2025 5:16 PM
Gamer streams aren't a consistent guaranteed income, like you enjoy doing it and hundreds of people show up. If you keep this mentality, you'll keep making less because it will show an air of ungratitude
@RADIAACTIVE NUKE I can't go to Anime North

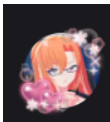
RADIAACTIVE NUKE 4/21/2025 5:16 PM
I just have to evaluate it based on time put in and what I get out of it
If I could just do it without a weight over my head I would.



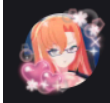
Adora Bunny LOP 4/21/2025 5:17 PM

To hit go live and stream and yap for 3-4 hours? You don't need to edit yourself or do extensive promo, you already have a well sized viewerbase that brings in more than I made as a civil engineer

its just a low period

RADIAACTIVE NUKE 4/21/2025 5:17 PM

But having more things on my shoulders make that incredibly difficult.



Adora Bunny LOP 4/21/2025 5:17 PM

You'll be fine

I get from an emotional standpoint because the health stuff really DOES suck

but "i don't make 50 dollars a stream rn" ain't a valid reason, stream income is random and highly variable and part of the business

Fenari MOFF 4/21/2025 5:19 PM

I completely understand needing to take time away due to heal concerns or stress esp due to the test thing and emotionally taking time would be a good but money being a deciding factor on whether or not to stream just makes you so much more stressed and to me isnt a healthy mindset especially cuz i know how much you love streaming

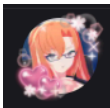
RADIAACTIVE NUKE 4/21/2025 5:19 PM

It's more a trade off

Do I benefit more from the hours there or more from other work/efforts? I'm essentially forced to evaluate it that way currently

Is it worth the mental boost if I physical hurt after?



Adora Bunny LOP 4/21/2025 5:21 PM

You are literally the largest streamer in this group and one of the biggest i'm with. I wish I could say I'd feel embarassed over 400 viewers and near civil engineering income. It's not embarassing. Your healthcare suffering because of the american system failing you and your day job being psychopaths is a valid thing to feel awful over and need support though

What work lol

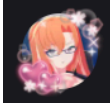
Your day job won't pay you more

What you going to do with that time that's more productive?

You REALLY should not value income =/= self-worth and success as a streamer

RADIAACTIVE NUKE 4/21/2025 5:22 PM

Certification work or dedicating time towards refining my professional career more.



Adora Bunny LOP 4/21/2025 5:22 PM

At least on stream you have a supportive community

I mean if you wanted to use that time to find a new job, sure. But in the end we're talking about 3-4 hours three times a week and it prints money traditionally for you. It's just a low period rn

RADIAACTIVE NUKE 4/21/2025 5:22 PM

I have a really limited energy and time pool that I find myself struggling to provide quality content even on a good day.

Adora Bunny LOP 4/21/2025 5:23 PM

I have zero reason to lie to you on this, you already are providing quality content with what you do

RADIAACTIVE NUKE 4/21/2025 5:23 PM

Fenari MOFF 4/21/2025 5:23 PM
chatters, subs, income fluctuate so wildly in this space, you never know how its gonna turn out since maybe one day a chatter gets a wild hair or somethin and ends up being super kind

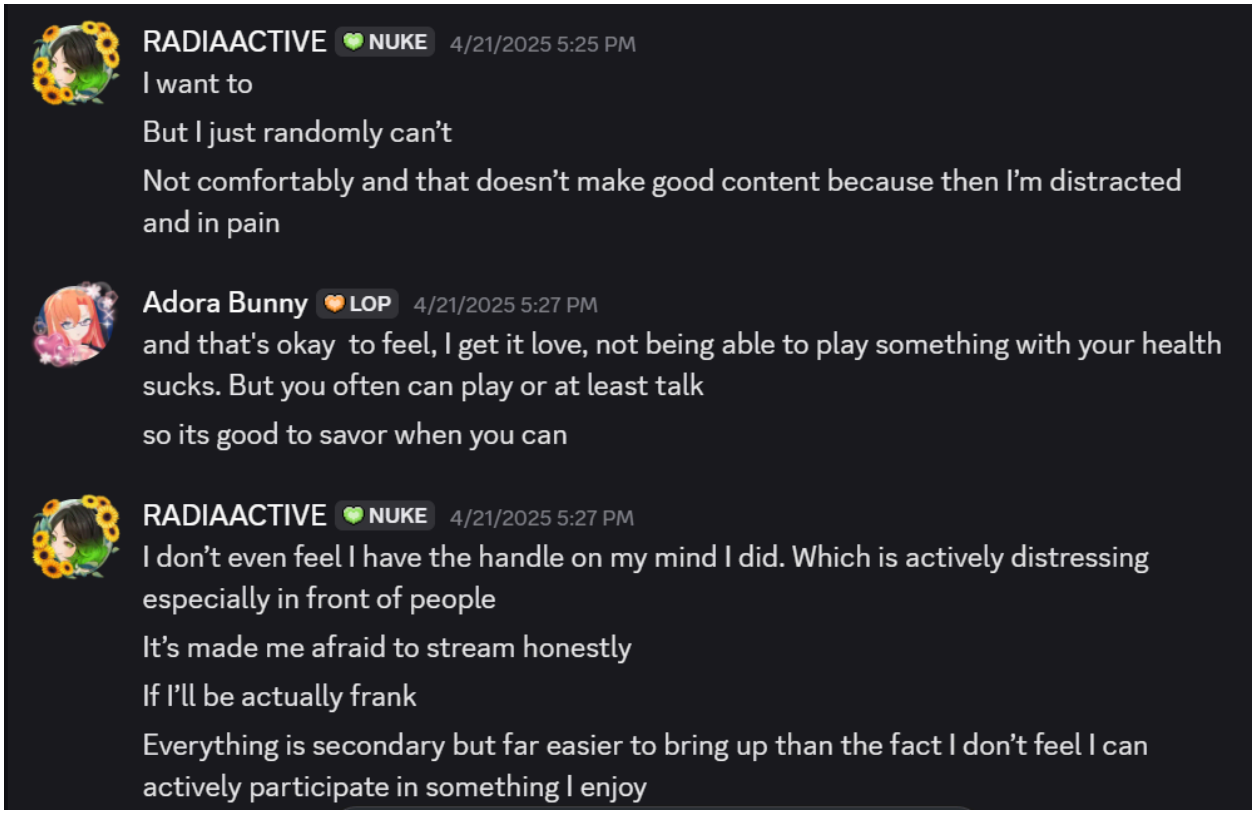
@RADIAACTIVE NUKE I'm just really distraught over the medical issues
Adora Bunny LOP 4/21/2025 5:24 PM
AND THAT IS FAIR
AND SUPER VALID
You can be! I agree! It's okay to be sad on it! But don't end productive things you enjoy when you're not in an emotionally bad headspace from your health and dayjob

RADIAACTIVE NUKE 4/21/2025 5:24 PM
I don't want to really dive into it all. But it's so saddening when I can't play a game
Because my hands hurt so badly

Adora Bunny LOP 4/21/2025 5:25 PM
And I get that



RADIAACTIVE NUKE 4/21/2025 5:25 PM
I want to
But I just randomly can't
Not comfortably and that doesn't make good content because then I'm distracted and in pain
Adora Bunny LOP 4/21/2025 5:27 PM
and that's okay to feel, I get it love, not being able to play something with your health sucks. But you often can play or at least talk so its good to savor when you can
RADIAACTIVE NUKE 4/21/2025 5:27 PM
I don't even feel I have the handle on my mind I did. Which is actively distressing especially in front of people
It's made me afraid to stream honestly
If I'll be actually frank
Everything is secondary but far easier to bring up than the fact I don't feel I can actively participate in something I enjoy

Radia knew my finances as well as Fenari's and Pom's. I had only recently as of the end of last year finally made enough money to feel comfortable to no longer need SNAP benefits to work as a creator full time as I pursued my career in content. We had genuinely been worried about her lack of gratitude towards her community, and this is important as it leads up to the intervention and why we did it.

Before Anime North, during our Project STIM announcement, Radia had used the event for all four of us to promote her Offkai Throne gift to raise $2,000 so she could "attend with us". She did not talk to us on this before that, and then began to say that she had wanted all of us to go attend Offkai as Project STIM. This was never a plan, as we were not invited as guests to Offkai as Project STIM, as we had just announced our group. Myself and Pomatomaster had planned to go together and Pomatomaster offered an affordable room to me months prior due to my income, and Fenarimori had her own plans with her friends as well unrelated to mine and Pom's. We were attending as ourselves, and Radia had never told us originally she had interest in going until around a month or so before we announced Project STIM.

During Anime North, while all four of us were staying together in the hotel room, a situation arose after dinner at a steakhouse. While myself and Fenarimori were sleeping, Pomatomaster had noticed Radia had gone live while in the bathroom. Confused, Pom realized DigitalVagrant had gone live on Radia's channel. Now while we didn't know Radia had planned for her boyfriend to go live, and there is nothing wrong with that, however, she also proceeded to never tell us about this. During this stream, Radia had been in her own chat and began to speak on having food poisoning. Radia had claimed on her stream from her chat logs that myself, Fenari, and Pomato implied that she had wanted Chinese food, when she never had. Before we had left for the steakhouse after the day, we asked if anyone had any dietary restrictions, as we were open to go anywhere, as well as were fine with anywhere. She did not object. As well, during this stream, she then spoke on saying she had food poisoning to her community while in our room. Her community proceeded to donate thousands of dollars generously to her. This is important for context for later. She never told any of us of this food poisoning, and during this time we were incredibly confused as community members had spoken to us showing concern when she had never told us anything while there with her in person. The next day after I woke up, I drove her to the Aquarium so she could swim with the stingray's for an experience by herself. She then ate a breakfast sandwich and then later frozen yogurt in front of me, having no idea she had been sick the night prior.

The evening of Sunday, while we were in the room. I was booking my flight to Offkai. I made a comment being sad that my flight's price had increased by 150 dollars since I waited until after Anime North to book it, and that it sucked since I'd need to tap my savings in order to make up the difference because I waited too long. Radia then responded to me by saying "Oh I should book my hotel room I guess" angrily while then proceeded to book herself a suite while complaining she did not have the money. She then went "I guess I might as well upgrade to a suite as this as it will only be $50 more." I responded with "A night or the whole stay?" being confused as at this point I did not know she had been generously donated thousands of dollars the night prior and was confused why she was spending more if she didn't have it. She responded with "No the entire stay." I dropped the subject after that, confused.

I had to save as well as ask for donations from my own community to go as well as make plans with Pom to save to make Offkai possible, so it was hurtful to hear her complain about booking a nice room she could afford while I was dealing with my own financial issues.

After all this had happened, and realizing a lot of actions were not adding up from Radia. There was no luring, because we wanted to talk to her as concerned friends and as soon as possible so we could figure out what was going on. Myself, Pomatomaster, and Fenari decided we needed to talk to her about these issues as soon as possible. The "altered document" was in fact the original list we used in reference to talk to her about during the intervention because we were worried about her. Myself, Pomatomaster, and Fenarimori all wrote this document together because we wanted to make sure before we talked to Radia. Many of these points come up in the intervention, as you will hear in the recording below. However, the document was also not meant to ever be sent to anyone, which is ultimately my fault. Because we wanted to keep communication lines open and after the intervention, I was asked by Fen to send a bulletin point list of what the intervention covered since we wanted to make sure Radia's local support network was involved. In my rush and stupidity, I instead tried to edit down the intervention list we wrote together, and did this poorly and without Fen or Pom's approval. The intervention list had points in it written rather poorly and while the three of us were hurt, and should never have been shared after the intervention was done. This was not done in malice, it was done in stupidity and me trying to help make things better because I at this point still wanted to fix my friendship with Radia and was being lazy. I genuinely regret making the situation worse in this regard, when all I wanted to do was try to communicate, but failed to do so, causing stress for everyone involved on all sides.

Ultimately, myself, Pomato, and Fenari were hurt by Radia at this point. Below is the entire recording between us and this intervention. Because we already were beginning to not trust Radia at this point and were concerned for ourselves as well that this might turn into more than what it was, the three of us agreed to record it for our own safety.

Please continue to read while you listen for context.

IMPORTANT NOTE FOR THE CALL:

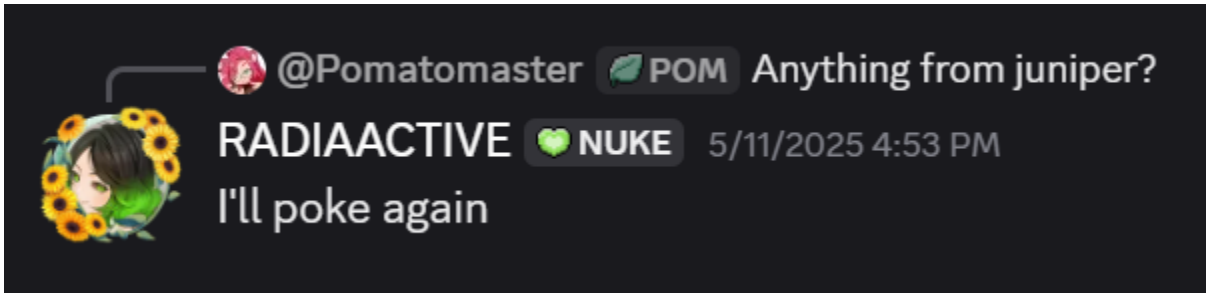
The first 20 minutes of this call is in regards to the event that was the final straw of us giving her a benefit of the doubt. I would ask the reader and listener to keep this in mind for context, as this was the most recent event and fresh in everyone's memories - leading us circling back to the other more important events that lead to this confrontation further into the call.

Here are several important timestamps during the call:

Up until 17:30 we lead with emotions because of our hurt where it is then brought back and Radia comes off eluding to the fact that Fen, Pom, and myself were not looking out for Radia at the convention despite asking everyone including her what they wanted to eat and keeping dietary restrictions in mind.

At 19:45 Radia discusses the rare steak she ate and Fen asks about it in relation to our feelings on Radia not thinking we cared about her.

At 25:20 is when we mention issues with Radia not reaching out to creators for Anime North meet and greets, as well as lying to us over doing this. Below is a screen shot in reference to her saying she had done something, when in fact she never had reached out to Juniper in the first place. Afterwards we confront Radia on lies related to food poisoning and the hotel room.



At 40:08 we discuss the moment Radia made poor comments towards Alicia's community member. I do not have the clip however another party involved does and it is ultimately their decision on whether they would like to release it.

At 49:00 is when Fen tells Radia she should take a break. As well, Pomato and myself agree due to our worry about her unhealthy connection with content.

The Intervention Call:
2025-05-27 15-54-46.mp3

Many of the issues in the "issues" document can be heard here, as well as stated by people besides me, because in the end we were worried about our friend's behaviors. This call is incredibly personal, but unfortunately with the narrative Radia has presented on the call and made public, I want the world to hear what actually happened.

Once again, I was not even the person to initially suggest to her to take a break. In fact, Fenari was the one in the intervention to bring it up as can be heard in this call starting at 49:44. Myself and Pom both agreed as well however with Fen. During this call, we speak on every issue I have spoken about prior in this document. We were incredibly hurt during this call and worried for our friend not telling us everything. We would never have suggested a break if she told us she couldn't afford to take one. In this call, she claims it was not about finances, but embarrassment to take a break. If she needed the income from streaming, we would have either offered alternatives such as a throne goal or told her it's fine to keep streaming. I have been living paycheck to paycheck, why would I want my best friend to financially suffer? As well, we unfortunately had to deal with small lies as well such as her claiming she had reached out to other creators for meet and greets. Names unfortunately cannot be censored here due to needing them to be able to be referenced between the recording and the video. Radia had claimed she had reached out to Juniper but in the call then stated she forgot to hit send on the first message ever. She even stated before this call that she would "poke again" but then proceeded to never do so.

Every claim she had made without any physical evidence is either false or fabricated from limited screenshots. I am going to show the screenshots that matter, which are related to my allegations of doxxing, as well as the entire conversation I have had with Radia, since she redacted important information in forming her narrative. As well, I was not the "leader" or one pushing this, this was equal hurt between myself, Pom, and Fen. At 1:01:20, we speak about the Offkai situation and Radia misleading on my, Pom, and Fen's behalf that we were trying to attend Offkai as Project STIM.

Now, as to the matter of the DMs claiming I was bullying her or manipulating her/abusing her.

Here is the entire, unaltered, fully transparent DMs between myself and Radia since she decided to remove several DMs from our conversation in her document, often in an attempt to make me look worse. At this time Pomato and Fenari were dealing with con crud and so I was the only one who could even talk to her and try to help her while they couldn't. Here is everything said between us, from beginning to end of this portion. I sincerely believed I was helping my friend, and I am not holding any line back because in the end, I think picking and choosing is wrong when making a case against a person. Please listen to the intervention however before reading these DMs if you can.

Adora Bunny 5/27/2025 3:53 PM
Hey we need to have an emergency STIM meeting right now can you jump in working in STIM
RADIAACTIVE 5/27/2025 3:53 PM
Sure

The portion she cut out was me speaking about my past relations with my father. My father and I are on great terms now and as well I have his full permission to post this. Radia is also talking about the STIM discord server at this time, not leaving STIM the group.

Adora Bunny 5/27/2025 10:19 PM
I will say, I do not think June 1st is a long enough break. This is genuinely a make or break situation in our friendship, Rae. And I do genuinely love you but I'm hurt and don't feel like I can fully trust you anymore and that needs to be rebuilt, and I want to rebuild it with you so badly because of all the good times we've had together. You need to recenter and change your approach and connection with streaming. Saying you remind me of my dad in this is something I didn't realize, but my dad also got better, but it took years of work and he still can't even touch our family money anymore.

This is like when you and I went to Marina. And you're not Marina. I want to see you become better in this stuff so I can trust you fully again.

RADIAACTIVE 5/27/2025 10:21 PM
Before I get to everything here I do just want to let you know I didn't leave STIM because I was upset. I just felt I shouldn't be present in the space

Adora Bunny 5/27/2025 10:22 PM
I didn't even notice and that's fine for now

RADIAACTIVE 5/27/2025 10:22 PM
For the time being

I just felt it was better

Adora Bunny 5/27/2025 10:22 PM
Yeah no that is a-okay, you should honestly not be going on Twitch, spending time with IRL friends, take time off of work, and just enjoy life and recenter

RADIAACTIVE 5/27/2025 10:24 PM
I know I shouldn't, I've been overworking myself and running from a pile of stress for months.

I haven't gotten probably proper sleep in months aside from rare days like Monday and while the intention isn't to fail or purposefully do harm most of what I do as of late tends to fall into that camp

Adora Bunny 5/27/2025 10:34 PM

RADIAACTIVE 5/27/2025 10:39 PM
I love you too and I've not being doing amazing since [redacted] died honestly. There was a lot of decade long purpose lost and fear gained afterwards.

While I can't take the entire month off work (that just isn't feasible regardless of how much OT I have unless I do disability leave, which I reserve for yearly surgeries), my overall schedule is light.

I'm going to keep what I have scheduled because it at least is scheduled social time that breaks up my week, but I'm not going to be overbooking myself or present 5+ days a week on stream, my own or others, for a long time.

Radia's brother's name is censored here just in case since I forgot if it was public information or not.

Adora Bunny 5/27/2025 10:39 PM
You really need to detach from streaming Radia

I say this out of a place of love and concern

I'll give you more time to process, but I'm going to be firm on this. I don't trust you right now. I don't feel comfortable having you on my stream, doing content with you, and you are my friend and I love you for you. I want the good I see in you to be the part that's there, but its hard when I keep feeling lied to. Please, stop lying to me, and please, recenter, meditate, and refocus. You need it. Burnout is the real killer

RADIAACTIVE 5/27/2025 10:41 PM
I understand

Adora Bunny 5/27/2025 10:41 PM
Things can improve. But it needs a genuine refocus and start here

RADIAACTIVE 5/27/2025 10:41 PM
You and everyone else in under no obligation to be around me right now nor will I make an effort to inject myself for the time being

Adora Bunny 5/27/2025 10:43 PM
And if you come back quickly, it is over, because it means you didn't learn whats wrong here. This is our make or break moment. And I hate saying that, but I never lied to you. Once. But I don't know when you're lying to me. And that hurts. A lot

I don't like hearing later that you told others that you were mad Fen came out to me after I was assaulted. I don't like hearing you told Kono I didn't help you enough. I am not perfect, but I genuinely give you my everything. I just don't want you to lie or feel like I'm being lied to

That's all

We can fix this. But I need you to understand what is wrong here so we can

It's going to be a long road

This is the start

I want this to work

You are family to me. My dad is still my father after what he did to my family. And he did much worse. But I don't like seeing him in you. And you can be like him and change in this regard

RADIAACTIVE 5/27/2025 10:45 PM
I understand what is wrong, I've known for a while and have been trying. But it's just an endless trudge downhill (edited)

Adora Bunny 5/27/2025 10:49 PM
Radia, I want to believe you, but right now I can't. My goodwill is at its end, and I will just need to see actions that speak on it. That's it. Please, rest, because I don't think you do, and I hope reflection and recentering will let you understand that and have you show gratitude towards those you haven't been. I'm genuinely hurt right now. And sorry isn't enough, action is. But I know you can do those actions. Anyways, that's all I want to speak on that for now. Go recenter, its still fresh

The part she removed from my post above was when she had told another party that she was upset that Fenari visited me to give me support after I came forward about my sexual assault in December instead of her. This was told eventually to Fen, and it hurt me greatly, because both Radia and I were assaulted by the same man.

RADIAACTIVE 5/27/2025 10:52 PM
Understood, I'll leave you to your evening and let you prepare for tomorrow (This isn't meant to sound snide, it just comes off as blunt, but I do mean to have a decent evening).

I won't necessarily be around as I'll be giving you all distance, but I'll be in DMs if needed. This isn't something I feel I even have the fundamental ability to fix at the moment.

Adora Bunny 5/27/2025 10:56 PM
Of course, this isn't me telling you we won't talk, because that is part of this process. You are my friend.

You are someone I view as a sister

And if you weren't, I wouldn't give you the same talk I gave my dad

RADIAACTIVE 5/27/2025 11:02 PM
I appreciate that, genuinely. My first instinct was to just walk away from content and everything around it. But I've not deleted everything so it's a start.

My experience in being a functional person is incredibly limited. I don't know what is wanted of my existence nor how people want me to engage.

Adora Bunny 5/27/2025 11:04 PM
And I hope you can improve. That's all I'd like to speak on this for tonight. This is a marathon not a sprint.

RADIAACTIVE 5/27/2025 11:04 PM
Understood

Adora Bunny 5/28/2025 10:26 AM
Going to say this now, I think you genuinely need a full social cleanse right now and detox. No discord, not even your own community, no Twitter, no twitch chat, nothing. You have an unhealthy tie to it and the more you interact with it right now the unhealthy connection you have to streaming will continue and you'll let it enable bad behavior. I hope I don't see any messages for a bit, and you communicate with loved ones you plan to do that so you can still hang out with irl folks. This is genuinely a serious moment Rae and I don't want to lose you as someone I love. Please rest so you can recenter and not tie content to an integral part of your heart. You're more than that!

You have my phone number and can text me and others there. We can even have phone calls to check in during it.

RADIAACTIVE 5/28/2025 11:51 AM
I don't have a ton of people IRL

Nymn and Digi are also rather busy so I'm currently just plugging away at work since it's all I really have.

It'll ground you I think

I'll be just texting you from here on out lol

RADIAACTIVE 5/28/2025 11:59 AM

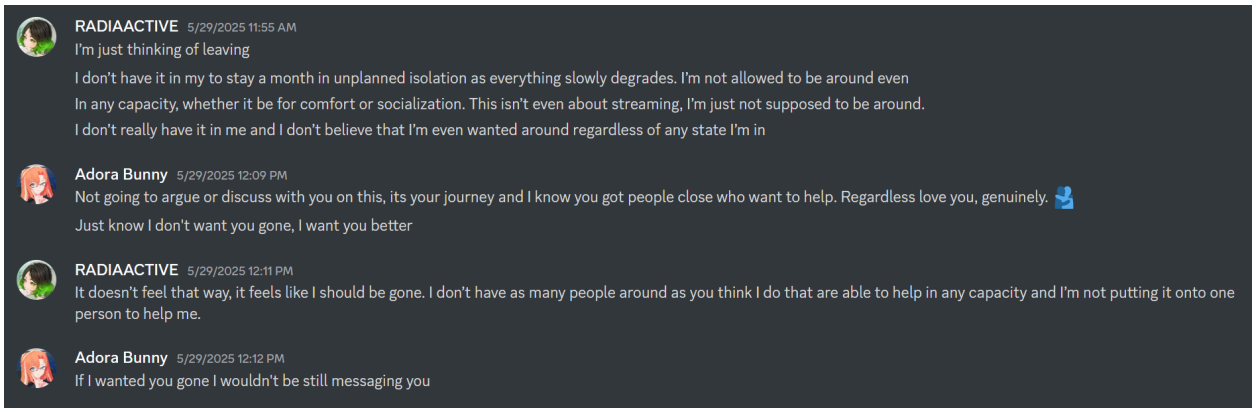
Nah fair but just testing
RADIAACTIVE I'm honestly at the point I find it easier to leave than to watch everything fall apart more.
Adora Bunny 5/28/2025 12:03 PM
I just want my old friend back that unprompted of nothing gave support and money when I was sick, not the one worrying about numbers and money from stream
RADIAACTIVE 5/28/2025 12:16 PM
I just don't see a place for me right now in anything. Let alone my presence making anything better now or in the future, I don't have any faith in my ability to do so anymore.
I don't even want people in person near me at the moment because I have no trust in my ability to not make basic human activities go awry
Adora Bunny 5/29/2025 11:44 AM
Figure I'd remind but so you can focus on stuff and just for the sake of our friendship, I don't have you down for any collabs in June and won't be coming on as well until July at the earliest so you don't feel obligated to stream because of me
So if there's anything I'm scheduled for, please take me off it
Also hope you didn't get too hard hit by con crud

As for the money comment, I was literally in thousands of dollars of debt at the time and struck with COVID with no way to work and pay bills. I never asked for anything from anyone, and Radia at the time generously gave me money without asking to help me pay for a testing kit as well as help get treatment as my medicaid hadn't started yet. To those being angry at me for being kind to her generosity in my moment of need, that's all it was. Fenari also at the time without being asked did the same thing. It's not wrong to be grateful for your friend's kindness. I will mention this later as well. Generosity like this has been rare in my life, and was precious to me at a moment when I was incredibly weak.



RADIAACTIVE 5/29/2025 11:55 AM
I'm just thinking of leaving
I don't have it in my to stay a month in unplanned isolation as everything slowly degrades. I'm not allowed to be around even
In any capacity, whether it be for comfort or socialization. This isn't even about streaming, I'm just not supposed to be around.
I don't really have it in me and I don't believe that I'm even wanted around regardless of any state I'm in
Adora Bunny 5/29/2025 12:09 PM
Not going to argue or discuss with you on this, its your journey and I know you got people close who want to help. Regardless love you, genuinely.
Just know I don't want you gone, I want you better
RADIAACTIVE 5/29/2025 12:11 PM
It doesn't feel that way, it feels like I should be gone. I don't have as many people around as you think I do that are able to help in any capacity and I'm not putting it onto one person to help me.
Adora Bunny 5/29/2025 12:12 PM
If I wanted you gone I wouldn't be still messaging you

RADIAACTIVE 5/29/2025 12:12 PM
There's no timeline, I don't feel I'm allowed to do anything at this point regardless of where I sit mentally. It just looks as if I'm supposed to go into isolation for a month and blow up foundational parts of life

Adora Bunny 5/29/2025 12:13 PM
There's more to life then content Rae

There's never a timeline on healing either

I still want you in my life. I just want to be able to trust you again. Things will be hard. But it can get better.

RADIAACTIVE 5/29/2025 12:15 PM
I know that. I'm not ignorant of that, but on a foundational level it does still support this household and people in my life now. I'm trying to mitigate additional suffering while healing

Adora Bunny 5/29/2025 12:18 PM
Just know I believe in you.

RADIAACTIVE 5/29/2025 12:23 PM
I don't know what to believe in. I'm certainly not a good person, and I've never been under the impression that I am in any way a particularly good person.

Adora Bunny 5/29/2025 12:25 PM
Nobody is a good person

We are all people

A big thing for me was realizing I need to be a person who does good things

It's what helped me a lot to work on myself

You've done bad things, but it doesn't mean you're a bad person. I've done bad things too! But the more and more good things we do, the better we will be. We can't rest on our laurels ever and think we are good people. But also thinking we are bad isn't helpful 🫂

I remember when I had covid and you immediately swooped in to help me unasked. That was a good thing. You do do good things.

RADIAACTIVE 5/29/2025 12:27 PM
I didn't think that was a good thing.

It just felt normal to do

Even things supposedly good by definition I get hurt or punished for at times.

I haven't ever felt I've done good so to speak.

I've just done what I should.

Fundamentally, I just don't understand people. I don't think I ever will; I'm the human equivalent of a feral animal from my upbringing and lack of socialization entirely. It's something that I don't even know is compatible with anyone with decent people, even when I try.

I don't make a conscious effort to hurt people, but my deficits do. My existence does. My existence hurts people far more than it causes joy or any other positive change.

Adora Bunny 5/29/2025 12:42 PM
I like to believe you are, if no one else believes then I do. Better to try than not, yeah?

RADIAACTIVE 5/29/2025 12:43 PM
I keep trying

But I keep getting hurt so much and overwhelmed in a way I can't explain to the point of collapse.

RADIAACTIVE 5/29/2025 12:52 PM
I couldn't help my brother or my family. Rationally, the only worth I have is what I can physically give. It's the one thing that makes people consistently happy with me. My existence alone has never been able to do that, so I've had to offer more value in the only way I've ever been able to

My existence isn't something that brings about joy currently. I can't even provide any value right now or perform basic foundational tasks. I don't have any value right now to anyone

> Adora Bunny I like to believe you are, if no one else believes then I do. Better to try than not, yeah?

RADIAACTIVE 5/29/2025 1:06 PM
If no one else believes then why must I try so hard? In the end everyone else is still going to hate me regardless of what I do

I don't want to be around if I'm not wanted

Or at least tolerated to go exist

Adora Bunny 5/29/2025 1:07 PM
Eitherway, I'm going to leave you to your thoughts rn since there's nothing productive that can be done and I sincerely believe therapy and self reflection will help you more. Just know you are wanted around, and I'm not reiterating myself anymore.

RADIAACTIVE 5/29/2025 1:07 PM
I just don't know what any of you want

I haven't done anything but my day job, sleep, schedule therapy, and sit on thoughts because I fear doing anything else.

I don't know what is a good enough punishment to atone. How much should I give up to be worthy? It's ambiguous and unattainable in my mind

Adora Bunny 5/29/2025 1:14 PM
It's not about punishment or atoning. It's about getting better. I don't want anymore lies and want to be able to trust again. It doesnt mean if you ever get caught in a lie again our friendship is over, I just want you to take accountability when you are, apologize, and then do it less! It also just means if something is off I'm going to just ask for receipts for awhile, like I did with my dad. I also just want to see you feel general gratitude for the good things in your life. Those are the main two things. I also just want your content brainrot fought against. I also don't want to see you complaining about things like money with folks that are less fortunate, or expressing jealousy towards others that have less than you, or folks who love you. I also want to see you do your own things when it comes to content and not copy others or move things around or act weird. Just stick to a schedule of days and do the things you think of, not things you think you need to copy or emulate out of non-existent obligation. Those are the main things I'll reiterate. This will be my last message for the day 🫡

RADIAACTIVE 5/29/2025 1:28 PM
You don't have to answer, obviously, but I'm not supposed to be around for I don't know how long. How am I even supposed to stick to a schedule of days when I'm not even allowed back regardless of if I'm doing anything with you all or not?

How do you even want me to prove myself in isolation, really? I don't feel I'm allowed to do anything, for it will mean I'm not sorry enough or trying hard enough if I dare to do anything online.

How do you even want me to prove myself in isolation, really? I don't feel I'm allowed to do anything, for it will mean I'm not sorry enough or trying hard enough if I dare to do anything online.

There isn't a way to prove anything is improving if I'm not supposed to exist in any capacity around the space. It's not as if you all exist around me physically.

I'm tired, and I've had to take on a lot within a short period of a few months. It's not been managed the best obviously, and it's resulted in constantly feeling illogical emotions or the omnipresent fear of losing everything I ever worked for. I don't have it in me to live like I used to, where everything was uncertain, even food. All I've done is work so I could one day not fear and maybe rest. It is a deep fear when I'm this overwhelmed.

Adora Bunny 5/29/2025 1:32 PM
I'll talk more tomorrow

Maintaining my boundary of the last message

RADIAACTIVE 5/29/2025 1:34 PM

I know, I just left it there so I would not forget. Otherwise I would unfortunately forget entirely.

Hope the aquarium is/was nice with Nymn :3

RADIAACTIVE 5/31/2025 4:41 PM
We're heading out now for it

Adora Bunny 5/31/2025 4:41 PM
Have a fun time and enjoy fish :3

RADIAACTIVE 5/31/2025 4:41 PM
Hopefully I have enough Polaroid film on me

Adora Bunny 5/31/2025 4:41 PM
Been keeping up with Nymn but you already knew that, happy to hear you're doing better and glad nymn's been better at getting stuff across to you than digi lol

RADIAACTIVE 5/31/2025 4:41 PM
I want to take some for them so they can put the pictures on their board

Adora Bunny 5/31/2025 4:42 PM
polaroids are always fun

my fave analog tech

for photos

RADIAACTIVE 5/31/2025 4:42 PM
They are, I admittedly need to keep more of a stash of the film. I keep going through them on outings

> Adora Bunny Been keeping up with Nymn but you already knew that, happy to hear you're doing better and glad nymn's been better at getting stuff across to you than digi lol

RADIAACTIVE 5/31/2025 4:44 PM
It's been helpful, I'm still kind of just in a place of lack of information. I've just been not present in really any place but my discord occasionally

Adora Bunny 5/31/2025 4:45 PM
I'll keep trying to communicate it as best I can although in reality it really just comes down to that

RADIAACTIVE 5/31/2025 4:45 PM
It's more the way things have been communicated

and were

Adora Bunny 5/31/2025 4:46 PM
nah I get that, in reality if I could make past Adora do anything it would be to just deal with your spirals and never tried to just let things slide that weren't socially okay rather than let them pile up

I won't be doing that going forward tho

(letting things slide, I'll just tell you as an adult like my other friends tell me when I do fuck ups)

RADIAACTIVE 5/31/2025 4:48 PM
I appreciate it. It basically was the equivalent of having a bomb thrown into my window with no room to actually speak. Because it wasn't a conversation in which my words had any inherent significance

I'm not unaware of issues nor is it something I've not been trying to correct at various stages of a downhill slide the past few months

Adora Bunny 5/31/2025 4:50 PM
I believe in you being able to get better anyways

Regardless, have fun with fish :3

RADIAACTIVE 5/31/2025 4:50 PM
I will

It's just been an uncontrolled fear response for the past few months spurred on by a close series of events I didn't have the capacity to deal with even with therapy.

It was a major part of why I felt alone, I couldn't rely on my partner to be an actual support structure at the moment I needed someone most and I refused to break my promise to a convention when I wanted to help them accomplish what I promised.

I've never been upset at you for getting the help you needed, I was happy you had the support in that time and could heal. That's a good thing and I never held malice for Fen being there. My only metrics for care were based solely upon the lack of presence from other parties specifically the person I needed the most when I was suffering. This isn't everything that has been on me, but it is just apart of a greater series of issues and misunderstandings.

I go look at fish for a bit

Adora Bunny 5/31/2025 5:00 PM
Go enjoy fish

RADIAACTIVE 5/31/2025 5:11 PM
I will ❤️

I appreciate you talking

RADIAACTIVE 5/31/2025 5:19 PM
I just wish that there had been sit-down conversations before letting things become a massive barrage that I was surprised with in public.

One of the major reasons I was consistently struggling was trying to manage everything I knew was wrong on my own while being hit with more problems.

A sit-down conversation with everyone to properly check and discuss behavior would have been more of a corrective method than just mentions of behavior that rubbed people wrong or holding it from my knowledge.

Adora Bunny 5/31/2025 6:03 PM
Nah I get that, but in the end it was unfortunately not really an easy way to do it, as well as kind of needed to be said for the sake of healing to happen. I want you to know at least on our end, we all are cheering you on and are hopeful that it'll be better communication going forward. 🫂

RADIAACTIVE 5/31/2025 6:08 PM
Yeah, I just am incredibly conflicted about doing anything

I don't feel I have any right to be present in anything nor am I wanted around

Adora Bunny 5/31/2025 6:10 PM
If that wasn't true it would have gone completely differently
Regardless, time will help heal

RADIAACTIVE 5/31/2025 6:12 PM
I essentially haven't had any communication beyond what we've had and that's been around what you've primarily wanted which was for me to not be present from how things were worded

Adora Bunny 6/1/2025 8:01 PM

it's all good

Hope you're doing ok

RADIAACTIVE 6/1/2025 8:08 PM

I'm hanging in there, just was up far later than I should have been so that's just bogged me down today.

Adora Bunny 6/1/2025 8:09 PM

Hopefully we can hang out soon, it'd be nice to talk and just vibe

RADIAACTIVE 6/1/2025 8:10 PM

I'm around, feel free to just tap me. But that would be nice

The only major thing I need to be absolutely present for is assisting Nymn with summer class selection and solidifying their new degree pathway with them and their counselor

Otherwise I'm usually able to work around my corporate schedule

Adora Bunny 6/1/2025 8:15 PM

Yeah no Nymn's stuff is important esp since I know they wanna change majors

We'll figure something out

I'll be free anyways after eating dinner

tonight

RADIAACTIVE 6/1/2025 8:16 PM
We spent like 2+ hours at the counselor's office on Friday
After talking for a long time Thursday
I'm glad they found what they dislike early on as opposed to after declaration

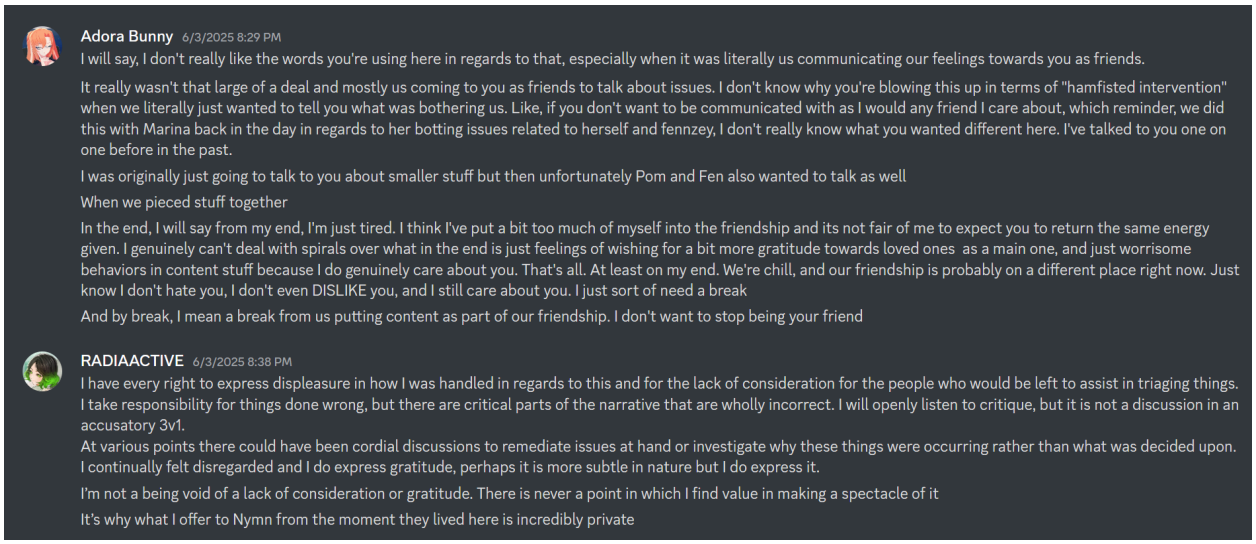
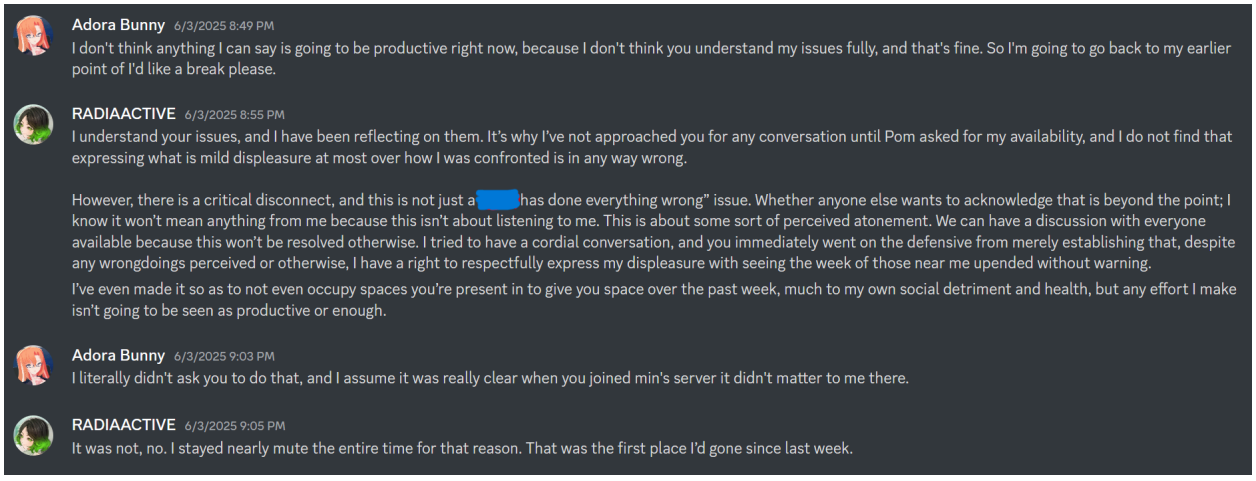
Pom is likely going to need to rest or stream
So I suppose we can speak sometime later this week
Adora Bunny 6/3/2025 8:22 PM
Yeah :\
It's ok though, I just know Pom's been having it pretty rough voice wise
We can figure out a time though pretty easy, I do know after Wednesday my thursday and friday's are pretty well open
RADIAACTIVE 6/3/2025 8:25 PM
Her lungs are just shot, whatever hit everyone got her hard in the respiratory department
But I also want this addressed and not pushed off into a corner until improper decisions are again made to perform a ham fisted intervention



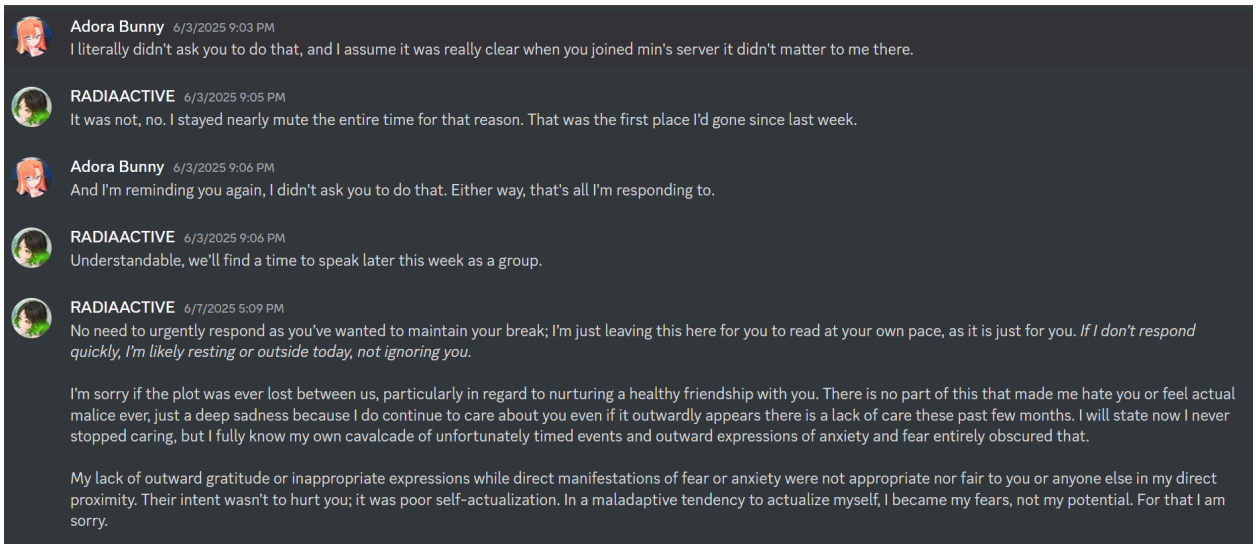
Adora Bunny 6/3/2025 8:29 PM
I will say, I don't really like the words you're using here in regards to that, especially when it was literally us communicating our feelings towards you as friends.
It really wasn't that large of a deal and mostly us coming to you as friends to talk about issues. I don't know why you're blowing this up in terms of "hamfisted intervention" when we literally just wanted to tell you what was bothering us. Like, if you don't want to be communicated with as I would any friend I care about, which reminder, we did this with Marina back in the day in regards to her botting issues related to herself and fennzey, I don't really know what you wanted different here. I've talked to you one on one before in the past.
I was originally just going to talk to you about smaller stuff but then unfortunately Pom and Fen also wanted to talk as well
When we pieced stuff together
In the end, I will say from my end, I'm just tired. I think I've put a bit too much of myself into the friendship and its not fair of me to expect you to return the same energy given. I genuinely can't deal with spirals over what in the end is just feelings of wishing for a bit more gratitude towards loved ones as a main one, and just worrisome behaviors in content stuff because I do genuinely care about you. That's all. At least on my end. We're chill, and our friendship is probably on a different place right now. Just know I don't hate you, I don't even DISLIKE you, and I still care about you. I just sort of need a break
And by break, I mean a break from us putting content as part of our friendship. I don't want to stop being your friend
RADIAACTIVE 6/3/2025 8:38 PM
I have every right to express displeasure in how I was handled in regards to this and for the lack of consideration for the people who would be left to assist in triaging things. I take responsibility for things done wrong, but there are critical parts of the narrative that are wholly incorrect. I will openly listen to critique, but it is not a discussion in an accusatory 3v1.
At various points there could have been cordial discussions to remediate issues at hand or investigate why these things were occurring rather than what was decided upon. I continually felt disregarded and I do express gratitude, perhaps it is more subtle in nature but I do express it.
I'm not a being void of a lack of consideration or gratitude. There is never a point in which I find value in making a spectacle of it
It's why what I offer to Nymn from the moment they lived here is incredibly private



Adora Bunny 6/3/2025 8:49 PM
I don't think anything I can say is going to be productive right now, because I don't think you understand my issues fully, and that's fine. So I'm going to go back to my earlier point of I'd like a break please.
RADIAACTIVE 6/3/2025 8:55 PM
I understand your issues, and I have been reflecting on them. It's why I've not approached you for any conversation until Pom asked for my availability, and I do not find that expressing what is mild displeasure at most over how I was confronted is in any way wrong.
However, there is a critical disconnect, and this is not just a [redacted] has done everything wrong" issue. Whether anyone else wants to acknowledge that is beyond the point; I know it won't mean anything from me because this isn't about listening to me. This is about some sort of perceived atonement. We can have a discussion with everyone available because this won't be resolved otherwise. I tried to have a cordial conversation, and you immediately went on the defensive from merely establishing that, despite any wrongdoings perceived or otherwise, I have a right to respectfully express my displeasure with seeing the week of those near me upended without warning.
I've even made it so as to not even occupy spaces you're present in to give you space over the past week, much to my own social detriment and health, but any effort I make isn't going to be seen as productive or enough.
Adora Bunny 6/3/2025 9:03 PM
I literally didn't ask you to do that, and I assume it was really clear when you joined min's server it didn't matter to me there.
RADIAACTIVE 6/3/2025 9:05 PM
It was not, no. I stayed nearly mute the entire time for that reason. That was the first place I'd gone since last week.

Radia's real name is censored here.

During these responses. I never wanted Radia to self-isolate from friends. I never asked her to not hang out with her friends, she instead put this on herself. I even state clearly that I told her it didn't matter and that I never told her to do that, which I never did in any previous message. I also told her I was happy to hang out with her on PartyDemoness's server. In the end, I believe this came down to miscommunication and misunderstanding of my words.



Adora Bunny 6/3/2025 9:03 PM
I literally didn't ask you to do that, and I assume it was really clear when you joined min's server it didn't matter to me there.

It was not, no. I stayed nearly mute the entire time for that reason. That was the first place I'd gone since last week.
Adora Bunny 6/3/2025 9:06 PM
And I'm reminding you again, I didn't ask you to do that. Either way, that's all I'm responding to.
RADIAACTIVE 6/3/2025 9:06 PM
Understandable, we'll find a time to speak later this week as a group.
RADIAACTIVE 6/7/2025 5:09 PM
No need to urgently respond as you've wanted to maintain your break; I'm just leaving this here for you to read at your own pace, as it is just for you. If I don't respond quickly, I'm likely resting or outside today, not ignoring you.
I'm sorry if the plot was ever lost between us, particularly in regard to nurturing a healthy friendship with you. There is no part of this that made me hate you or feel actual malice ever, just a deep sadness because I do continue to care about you even if it outwardly appears there is a lack of care these past few months. I will state now I never stopped caring, but I fully know my own cavalcade of unfortunately timed events and outward expressions of anxiety and fear entirely obscured that.
My lack of outward gratitude or inappropriate expressions while direct manifestations of fear or anxiety were not appropriate nor fair to you or anyone else in my direct proximity. Their intent wasn't to hurt you; it was poor self-actualization. In a maladaptive tendency to actualize myself, I became my fears, not my potential. For that I am sorry.

After this point on 6/3 (before the 6/7 message was sent by Radia), I sent this series of messages to Fenari and Pom, and we joined a call together because of how she was beginning to talk to me in this conversation and we were worried. This clip was then sent to us and we watched it together from a stream the day previous. She begins to talk about us at 3:56.

Radia talking about us.mp4

Hearing the words "hamfisted" we immediately knew she was talking about us. This made us worry, because in the end we did just genuinely care about her and were confused at what was going on when this was a private issue between friends and why she was speaking about us on stream. In the following recorded conversation. We realized we no longer wanted to work with her if she was going to talk badly about us publicly like this when we had said NOTHING about her publicly during this, because she was our friend.

After this point, myself, Pomato, and Fenari began to question what we knew about our friend. Having gone into business together and having traded our information, we began to question what we knew about her. We then realized "Does she have the education background she has claimed to us". We remembered multiple times as well she had claimed to be a chemical engineer, as well as claimed to Pom and myself that she had "one and a half masters". We no longer trusted her, and so we looked her up to check for ourselves since when we created Project STIM we gave each other all of our personal information. We learned then she did not have a degree in chemical engineering from an updated resume on LinkedIn as of 2025, nor any masters. At this point, we were devastated. Nothing made sense anymore, and we were ready to move on from her being in our group. After having been friends with Radia for almost three years, it began to put everything into question. I didn't like myself during this time, and entered a heavy depressive episode as I no longer knew what or who I could trust and began to spiral.

RADIA 8/8/2024 3:28 PM
I was formerly working as a chemical engineer for the government
Now I do large scale enterprise architecture and network engineering

Her first statement was not on her resume of work experience. Her resume had no gaps either, nor did she have a degree or any statement of work as a chemical engineer in it.

RADIAACTIVE 8/24/2023 11:32 AM

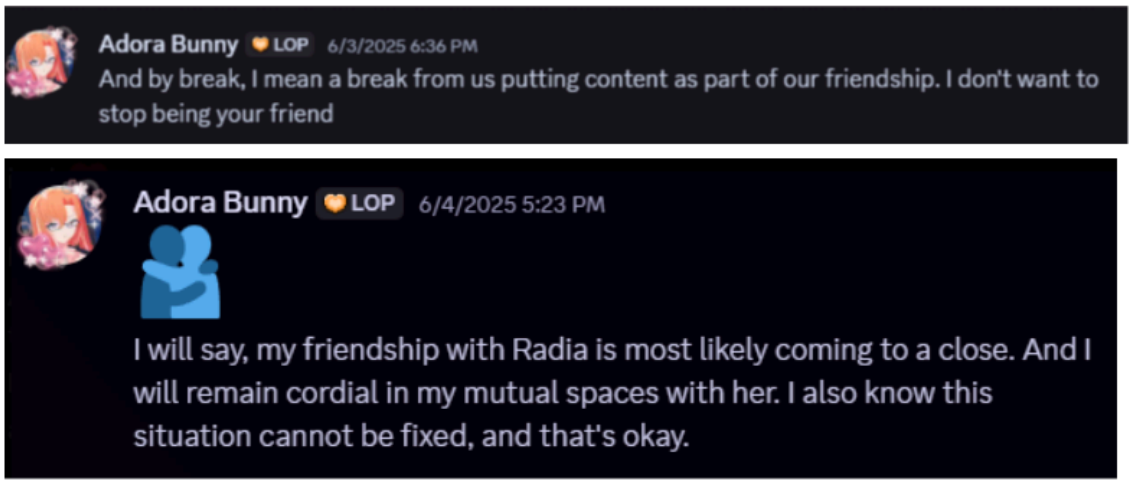
It's a life but definitely not what fills the day with joy

Here is a clip from my Youtube of her speaking on her education background as well, which does not line up either with "two engineering degrees" at 8:38.
These Vtubers are REAL SCIENTISTS!?

This was stated freely in my public community server back in 2023. She had told us she had two engineering degrees, when in reality she had as listed on her LinkedIn a degree in biology and a degree in environmental sciences and engineering. I had believed this information about my friend for years, and to find out something so weird was being lied about to me devastated me. I began to emotionally spiral and no longer knew what to do. I spoke with several friends during this time as I was hurt and wanted support. I did not send any personal information however about her to any of them other than the reason why I no longer trusted her and what was causing me to spiral, aka that she was lying to me about her education background. I'm sorry I decided to talk to my friends because I was hurt. It's a human thing to want support when you're hurt, and I wish I went to less people and folks that were less connected to both of us. But what was done is done, and I take ownership that in my emotional state I reached out to too many folks.

As for someone claiming all the messages before were "lies" because I was sending "two-faced messages", please check the timestamps.

In brief, Adora was lying directly to Radia's face regarding her intentions as early as June 3rd-4th. The below screenshots are from less than 24 hours apart.



Adora Bunny LOP 6/3/2025 6:36 PM
And by break, I mean a break from us putting content as part of our friendship. I don't want to stop being your friend
Adora Bunny LOP 6/4/2025 5:23 PM
I will say, my friendship with Radia is most likely coming to a close. And I will remain cordial in my mutual spaces with her. I also know this situation cannot be fixed, and that's okay.

The night of the third is when I learned about Radia's education background. At that point I was hurt and realized my friendship was probably ending after having heard her publicly talk badly about me as well as her education background and I had wanted to warn mutual friends that this was going to most likely come to an end because I collabed with Radia at least twice a week and this drastic change of us suddenly not collabing anymore would be noticed. This also lets us avoid awkward collabs in the future.

In regards to the doxxing allegations:

The anonymous source on the claims of doxxing was my manager at the time, momo_toirneach, who I reached out to to ask for professional advice on what to do in this situation. After learning that Radia did not have a master's degree listed on her LinkedIn despite her having told us multiple times she had a master's degree as well as different degrees than she ever told me, I went to my manager while emotionally hurt to ask for advice on how to handle this and sent the information we discovered from her LinkedIn to confirm it with her if what I was seeing was correct with her professional opinion. She never declined to do this and agreed to assist and in confidence. I would rather be honest and show this mentally unstable and incredibly poor side of me after I was hurt and not knowing what to do when I thought I was talking in confidence with my manager at the time on what to do in a professional situation with a friend who lied to me about her academic background and not knowing anymore what was truth or fiction. Unrelated parties have been censored for privacy. I do not agree with what I said in the past here beyond the lies involving her education background, and this conversation was only with my manager in confidence, and no one else. Here are the entire logs with her below.

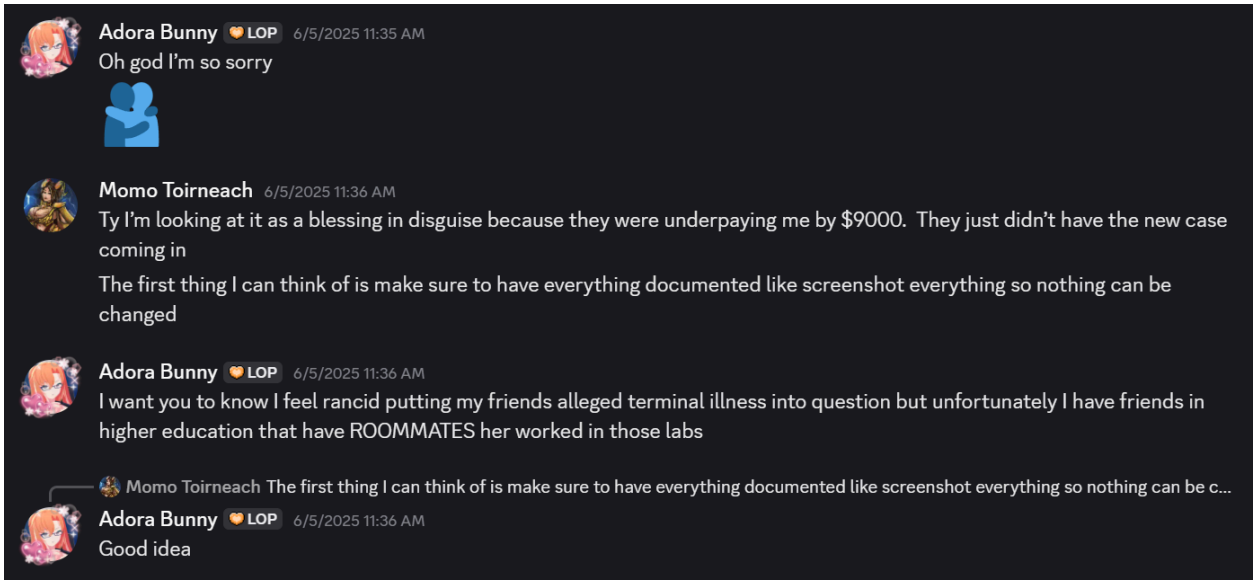
Momo Toirneach 6/5/2025 5:18 AM
Hey I am going to confirm some things with [redacted] for meet and greet. I know they are doing it for [redacted] which is [redacted] to the [redacted] would you be interested in doing a virtual meet and greet with them?
Adora Bunny LOP 6/5/2025 11:24 AM
I would be interested yes!
Momo Toirneach 6/5/2025 11:24 AM
Ok
Adora Bunny LOP 6/5/2025 11:30 AM
On an unrelated note, letting you know I'm going to be distancing from radia here soon as is Pom and fen. Unfortunately during anime north a series of small lies happened that she wouldn't take any responsibility for, and now when we looked around, we realized unfortunately she's lying about her degrees. (She just has a bachelors, no masters) it's why I didn't stream Wednesday, I'm just really devastated (edited)
Momo Toirneach 6/5/2025 11:32 AM
I am so sorry Adora .

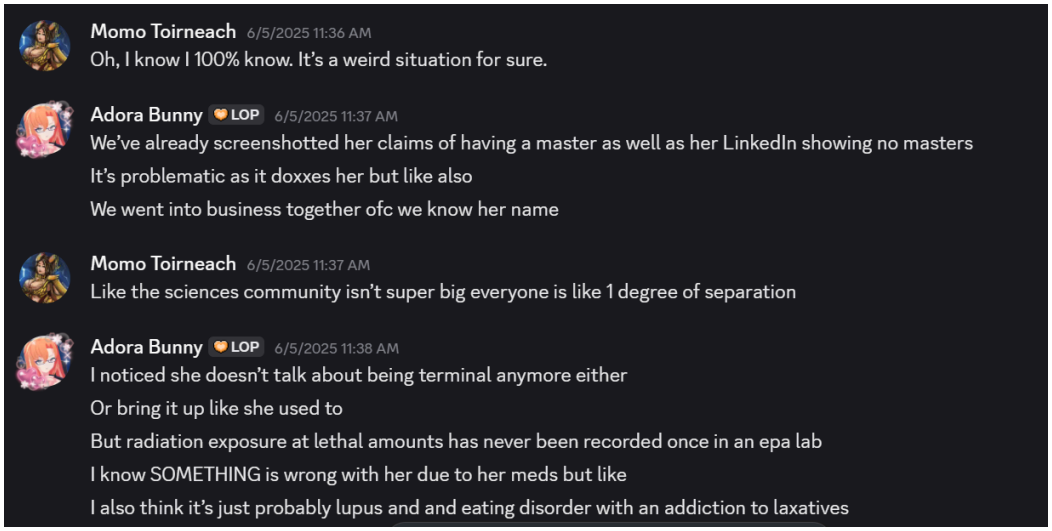
Adora Bunny LOP 6/5/2025 11:32 AM
We're still quietly figuring out how to deal with a compulsive liar
I'm genuinely afraid of her
The lack of masters also throws a lot more into question, because her epa lab work claims would require a masters to even get into the lab and handle radioactive material
And... not putting any higher education and the timelines of her graduation on her LinkedIn just gives no time to have gotten a masters
Especially when it's been up to date as of 2025
So yeah, she terrifies me
I genuinely think what she's doing might be worse than sinder (edited)
Do you have any advice on what to do here?
Momo Toirneach 6/5/2025 11:35 AM
Oh god. Let me sit and think on that . I am dealing with the fact that the law firm that just hired me fired me today bc they no longer have any to do estate planning

Here is me asking for advice to my manager while hurt.



Adora Bunny LOP 6/5/2025 11:35 AM
Oh god I'm so sorry
Momo Toirneach 6/5/2025 11:36 AM
Ty I'm looking at it as a blessing in disguise because they were underpaying me by $9000. They just didn't have the new case coming in
The first thing I can think of is make sure to have everything documented like screenshot everything so nothing can be changed
Adora Bunny LOP 6/5/2025 11:36 AM
I want you to know I feel rancid putting my friends alleged terminal illness into question but unfortunately I have friends in higher education that have ROOMMATES her worked in those labs
Momo Toirneach The first thing I can think of is make sure to have everything documented like screenshot everything so nothing can be c...
Adora Bunny LOP 6/5/2025 11:36 AM
Good idea

At this point I was already beginning to question everything because I no longer felt I knew my friend and had no idea what she was telling the truth or lying about. In the end, I really wish this wouldn't have had to be seen in the public eye, but I would rather show the private confidential conversation I had with my manager that she leaked to Radia and now the public, even if my emotional hurt at the time paints me in a bad light.



Momo Toirneach 6/5/2025 11:36 AM
Oh, I know I 100% know. It's a weird situation for sure.
Adora Bunny LOP 6/5/2025 11:37 AM
We've already screenshotted her claims of having a master as well as her LinkedIn showing no masters
It's problematic as it doxxes her but like also
We went into business together ofc we know her name
Momo Toirneach 6/5/2025 11:37 AM
Like the sciences community isn't super big everyone is like 1 degree of separation
Adora Bunny LOP 6/5/2025 11:38 AM
I noticed she doesn't talk about being terminal anymore either
Or bring it up like she used to
But radiation exposure at lethal amounts has never been recorded once in an epa lab
I know SOMETHING is wrong with her due to her meds but like
I also think it's just probably lupus and and eating disorder with an addiction to laxatives

The screenshots are shown earlier. Unfortunately most of what she spoke about on her telling us she had "one and a half masters" was done in VCs or previous stream VODs, but considering I am being accused of also talking in VC, I will leave it at that.

Momo Toirneach 6/5/2025 11:40 AM
Yeah Lupus is something that requires a ton of med and a ton of testing .

Adora Bunny LOP 6/5/2025 11:40 AM
She claims a hysterectomy but has no scars
It gets weird
On a more petty note, she also hides her plastic surgery history with friends but has gotten cosmetic lip filler and Botox and has claimed herself to be natural to me
I would not be shocked if she had breast augmentation and not reduction

Momo Toirneach 6/5/2025 11:41 AM Really ?

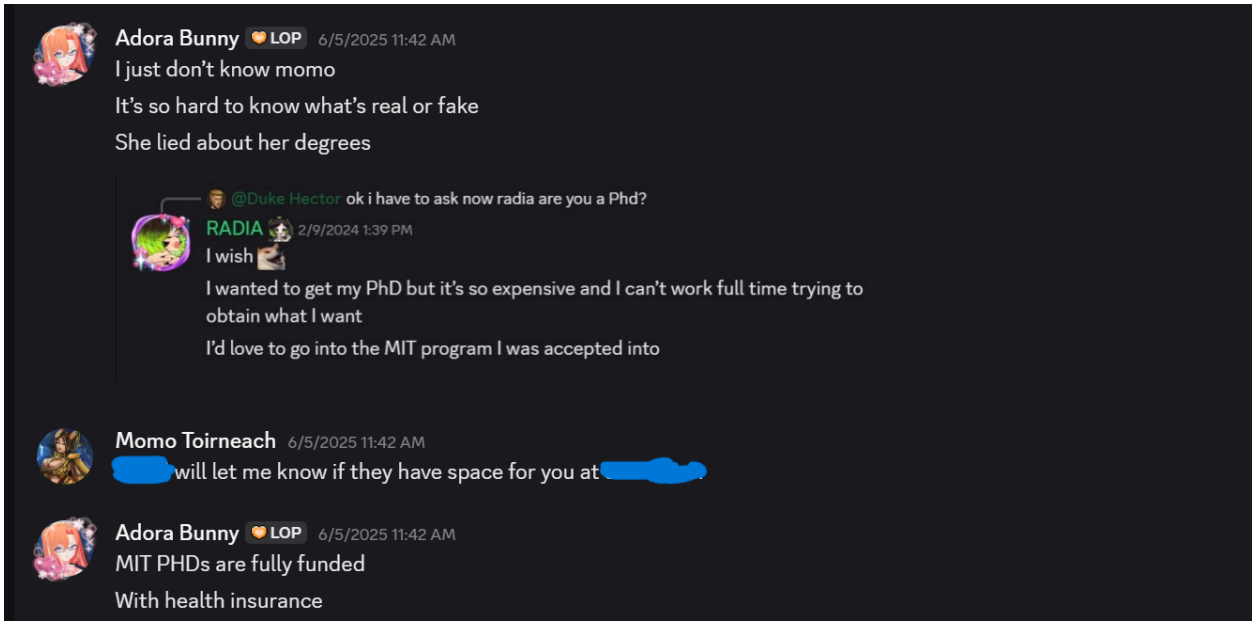
Adora Bunny LOP 6/5/2025 11:42 AM
I just don't know momo
It's so hard to know what's real or fake
She lied about her degrees



Adora Bunny LOP 6/5/2025 11:42 AM
I just don't know momo
It's so hard to know what's real or fake
She lied about her degrees

> @Duke Hector ok i have to ask now radia are you a Phd?
> RADIA 2/9/2024 1:39 PM
> I wish
> I wanted to get my PhD but it's so expensive and I can't work full time trying to obtain what I want
> I'd love to go into the MIT program I was accepted into

Momo Toirneach 6/5/2025 11:42 AM
[redacted] will let me know if they have space for you at [redacted]

Adora Bunny LOP 6/5/2025 11:42 AM
MIT PHDs are fully funded
With health insurance

Dawg if I got into MIT, I'd make it work (edited)

Momo Toirneach 6/5/2025 11:43 AM
Oh I didn't realize that , but yah same

Adora Bunny LOP 6/5/2025 11:43 AM
Yeah most don't!

Momo Toirneach 6/5/2025 11:44 AM
Like I have my BS and MS hanging in my bedroom if someone asked me I could send the picture of that

Adora Bunny LOP 6/5/2025 11:44 AM
She has a BS from a [redacted] college (edited)
With no time to have gotten a masters

As she graduated in [redacted]

Momo Toirneach 6/5/2025 11:45 AM
And I am assuming that collage doesn't have the bs/ms combin track

Adora Bunny LOP 6/5/2025 11:45 AM
No nor did her resume
If you want to see her resume yourself, go look her up on LinkedIn lol

Momo Toirneach 6/5/2025 11:46 AM
Like my MS is from [redacted] so it's not super impressive but I got that 4 year after I got my BS .

Adora Bunny LOP 6/5/2025 11:46 AM
You still got it tho
My bs is from [redacted] in civil engineering

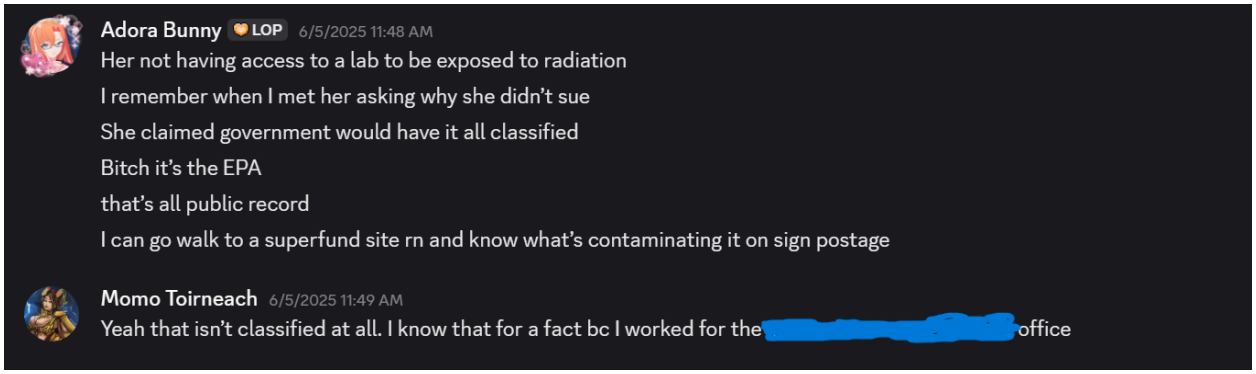
Momo Toirneach 6/5/2025 11:46 AM
That is wild to me . Like why lie about a degree you have .

Adora Bunny LOP 6/5/2025 11:46 AM
To make herself seem more impressive
She lied at anime north about having food poisoning
She ate ice cream in front of me despite having "lactose intojerahce"

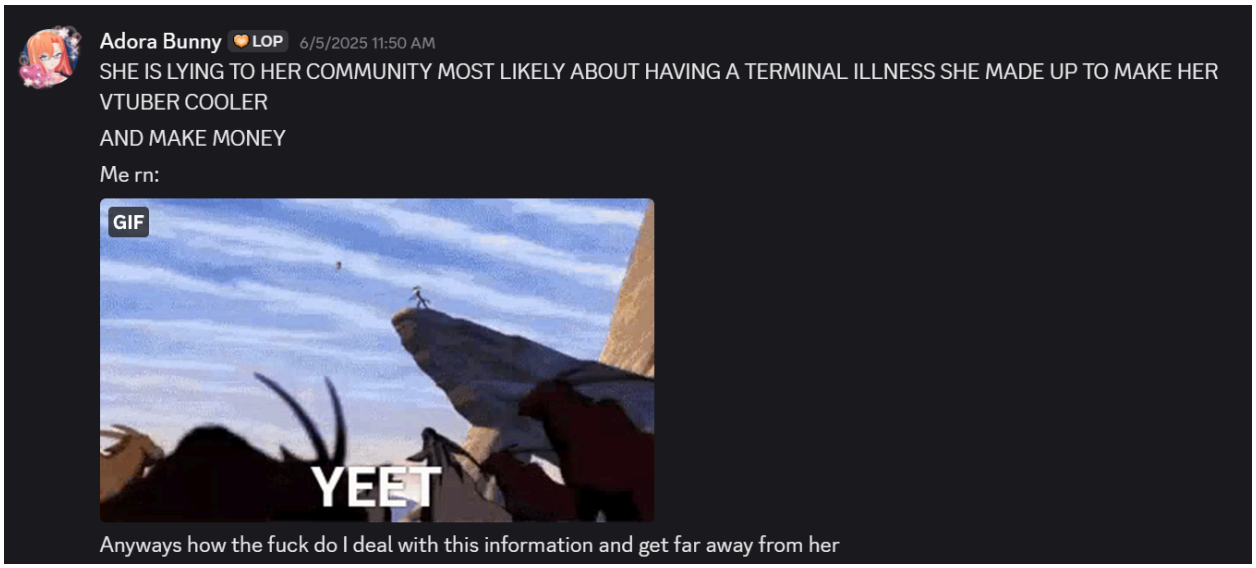
Momo Toirneach 6/5/2025 11:47 AM
Like you will be called out . That why I stick to what I know when I talk about science

Adora Bunny LOP 6/5/2025 11:48 AM
She gaslit me on telling me her offkai hotel room upgrade only cost 50 dollars more an entire stay then later said "no I said otherwise"

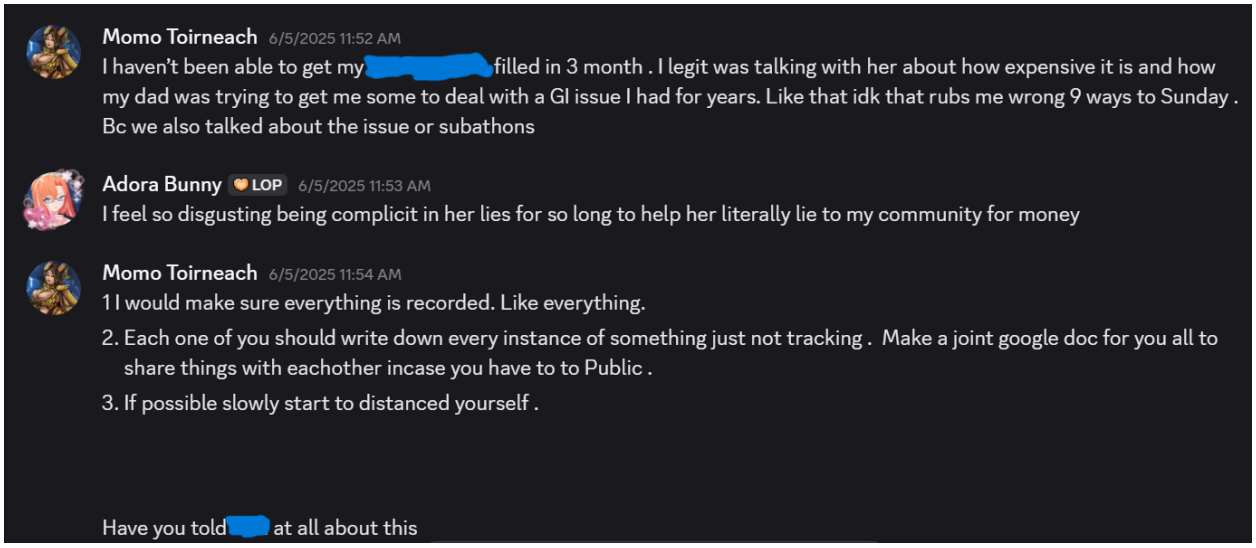
Momo Toirneach 6/5/2025 11:48 AM
Oh fuck



Adora Bunny LOP 6/5/2025 11:48 AM
Her not having access to a lab to be exposed to radiation
I remember when I met her asking why she didn't sue
She claimed government would have it all classified
Bitch it's the EPA
that's all public record
I can go walk to a superfund site rn and know what's contaminating it on sign postage
Momo Toirneach 6/5/2025 11:49 AM
Yeah that isn't classified at all. I know that for a fact bc I worked for the [redacted] office



Adora Bunny LOP 6/5/2025 11:50 AM
SHE IS LYING TO HER COMMUNITY MOST LIKELY ABOUT HAVING A TERMINAL ILLNESS SHE MADE UP TO MAKE HER VTUBER COOLER
AND MAKE MONEY
Me rn:
GIF
YEET
Anyways how the fuck do I deal with this information and get far away from her



Momo Toirneach 6/5/2025 11:52 AM
I haven't been able to get my [redacted] filled in 3 month . I legit was talking with her about how expensive it is and how my dad was trying to get me some to deal with a GI issue I had for years. Like that idk that rubs me wrong 9 ways to Sunday . Bc we also talked about the issue or subathons
Adora Bunny LOP 6/5/2025 11:53 AM
I feel so disgusting being complicit in her lies for so long to help her literally lie to my community for money
Momo Toirneach 6/5/2025 11:54 AM
1 I would make sure everything is recorded. Like everything.
2. Each one of you should write down every instance of something just not tracking . Make a joint google doc for you all to share things with eachother incase you have to to Public .
3. If possible slowly start to distanced yourself .
Have you told [redacted] at all about this

My manager then gave me instructions on what to do. To record everything, as well as write down everything that felt like a lie. She also said I should make a google doc. I ended up not making a google doc, with this being the first time I've written one, as explained earlier about what the "alleged cancel doc" was just me trying to tell DigitalVagrant what we were worried about with Radia from our intervention from my rushed cut down of notes and was written before the intervention so myself, Pom, and Fen would have something to speak on as we went through the intervention so we wouldn't go off topic.

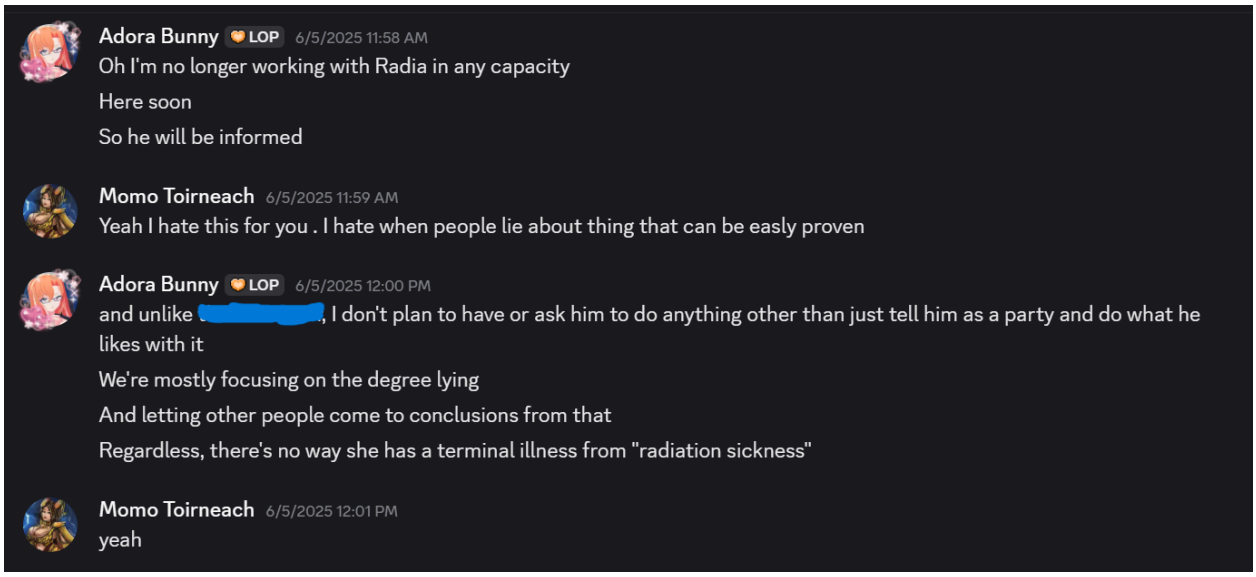
Adora Bunny LOP 6/5/2025 11:55 AM
Not yet and I don't plan to until after we get a document straight if every major issue with receipts
I do plan to quietly inform all my close friends of my discovery and why Pom fen and I are distancing
Momo Toirneach 6/5/2025 11:55 AM
that is prob for the best . Having your duck in a row is the best method
Adora Bunny LOP 6/5/2025 11:55 AM
We thought it was just small white lies
Lying about her degrees literally throws her medical stories into question
Momo Toirneach 6/5/2025 11:56 AM
[redacted]right now I know is under the assumtion that they wont be back on[redacted]
I am so sorry Adora



Adora Bunny LOP 6/5/2025 11:58 AM
Oh I'm no longer working with Radia in any capacity
Here soon
So he will be informed
Momo Toirneach 6/5/2025 11:59 AM
Yeah I hate this for you . I hate when people lie about thing that can be easly proven
Adora Bunny LOP 6/5/2025 12:00 PM
and unlike [redacted], I don't plan to have or ask him to do anything other than just tell him as a party and do what he likes with it
We're mostly focusing on the degree lying
And letting other people come to conclusions from that Regardless, there's no way she has a terminal illness from "radiation sickness"
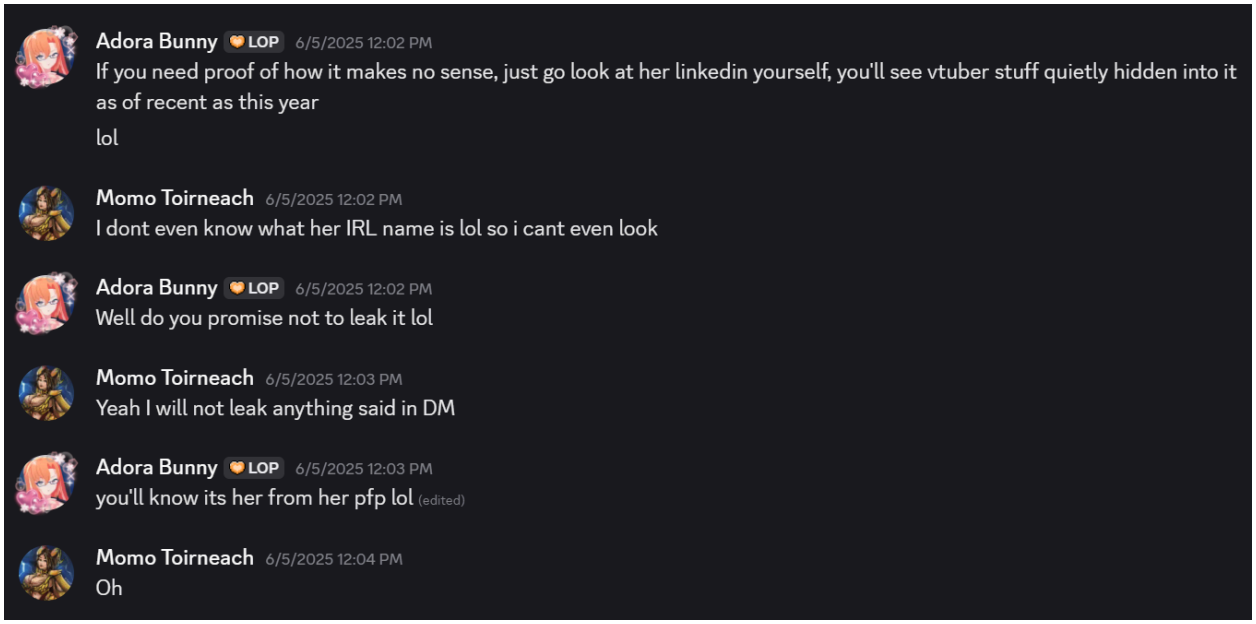
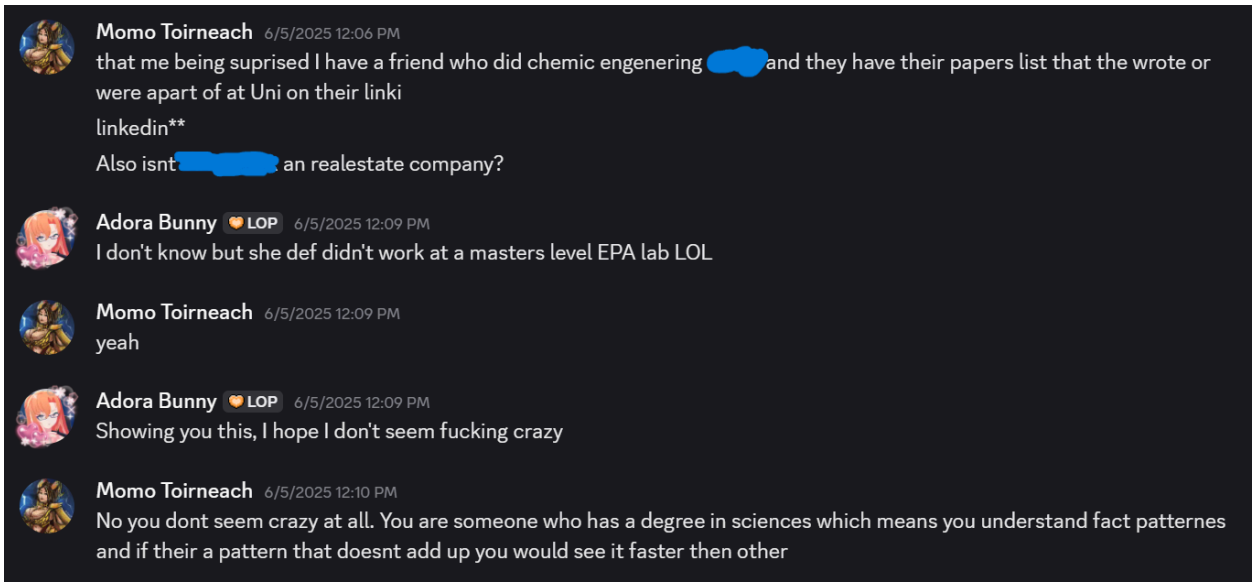
Momo Toirneach 6/5/2025 12:01 PM
yeah



Adora Bunny LOP 6/5/2025 12:02 PM
If you need proof of how it makes no sense, just go look at her linkedin yourself, you'll see vtuber stuff quietly hidden into it as of recent as this year
lol
Momo Toirneach 6/5/2025 12:02 PM
I dont even know what her IRL name is lol so i cant even look
Adora Bunny LOP 6/5/2025 12:02 PM
Well do you promise not to leak it lol
Momo Toirneach 6/5/2025 12:03 PM
Yeah I will not leak anything said in DM
Adora Bunny LOP 6/5/2025 12:03 PM
you'll know its her from her pfp lol (edited)
Momo Toirneach 6/5/2025 12:04 PM
Oh

Yes, I did delete her name after I sent it, because I didn't want to keep it there with my manager after she was given the information in confidence. She had also promised me confidentiality, then broke that immediately as my manager by leaking our conversation. In the end I wanted to confirm with her what I knew and trusted her professionally, and showed an incredibly emotional and volatile side when I needed help the most. At no other point was Radia's real name given to anyone else. And me saying you do not have a masters or chemical engineering degree is not doxxing. If you have any PHYSICAL evidence of me doxxing you and not "whispers" of a testimony, please share, else it is word of mouth.



Momo Toirneach 6/5/2025 12:06 PM
that me being suprised I have a friend who did chemic engenering [redacted] and they have their papers list that the wrote or were apart of at Uni on their linki linkedin
Also isnt [redacted] an realestate company?
Adora Bunny LOP 6/5/2025 12:09 PM
I don't know but she def didn't work at a masters level EPA lab LOL
Momo Toirneach 6/5/2025 12:09 PM
yeah
Adora Bunny LOP 6/5/2025 12:09 PM
Showing you this, I hope I don't seem fucking crazy
Momo Toirneach 6/5/2025 12:10 PM
No you dont seem crazy at all. You are someone who has a degree in sciences which means you understand fact patternes and if their a pattern that doesnt add up you would see it faster then other

My manager also then proceeded to look her up with the information given. At no point did she tell me "you shouldn't do this" and engaged as well in looking her up and brought up other personal information from her LinkedIn. I asked for trust from my manager to assist me in navigating this difficult situation and she ultimately broke it and led to this situation getting even worse when I was already in a highly emotional state and didn't know what to do.

Adora Bunny LOP 6/5/2025 12:45 PM
On an unrelated note but important, I will probably be signing up in an exclusive contract with [redacted], which is [redacted] management company for at least sponsorship gaining. It wouldn't stop us working together in planning stages but it would also mean any opportunities you found you'd have to direct to them so they get their cut too lol. I was wondering if you'd look over the contract when its sent my way (edited)

Momo Toirneach 6/5/2025 12:47 PM
Oh yeah that is fine . Total understandable and yeah still be willing to do that .

Adora Bunny LOP 6/5/2025 12:48 PM
Their cut is admittedly higher but I also know working with you was more for the project management side of things
And reaching out for cons and stuff doesn't impact that, really anything that doesn't make direct money doesn't lol
Thank you for letting me know you're okay with that though, we don't have any actual contracts so you at least thankfully can just walk if you wanted lol

Momo Toirneach 6/5/2025 12:50 PM
lol Honeslty reading trends looking at data and reading over contacts is fun for me. ESP data set it's the reason I leaned Power BI

Adora Bunny LOP 6/5/2025 12:55 PM

I hope I didn't seem weird in taking off yesterday now that I explained the real reason why lol
I'm admittedly devastated rn
She was like a sister to me
And she just was lying to my face about the dumbest fucking shit
and potentially some of the most problematic stuff around

Momo Toirneach 6/5/2025 12:58 PM
No not at all. I almost messaged you a joke bc you said you got distracted by what [redacted] showed you lol

Adora Bunny LOP 6/5/2025 1:01 PM
LMAO
Yeah no she DID send me a pic of her boobs but that was just us making a fun cover so my community didn't worry
They'll have better insight once we publicly distance

Momo Toirneach 6/5/2025 1:01 PM
Yeah . That was a good cover lol

Adora Bunny LOP 6/5/2025 1:02 PM
I really hope Rae doesn't try to come after us because like
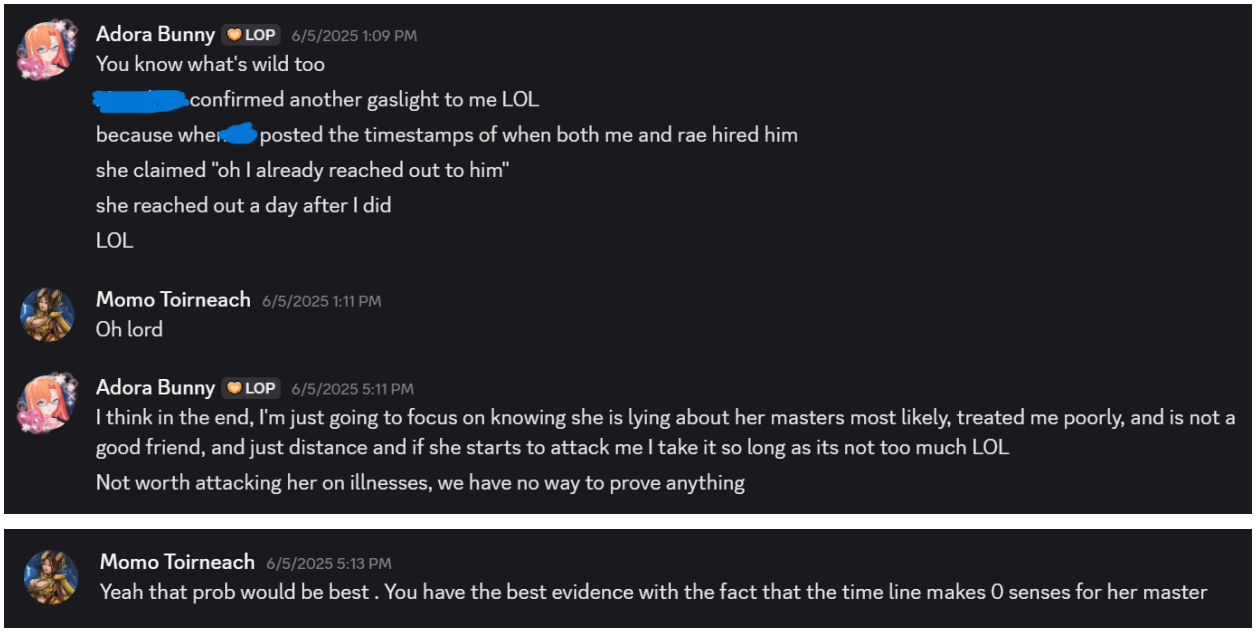
We aren't going to make the first punch other than start moving away from her

Momo Toirneach 6/5/2025 1:02 PM
I hope so too, I don't think she would bc that would be really bad on her part .



Adora Bunny LOP 6/5/2025 1:09 PM
You know what's wild too
[redacted] confirmed another gaslight to me LOL because wher[redacted] posted the timestamps of when both me and rae hired him
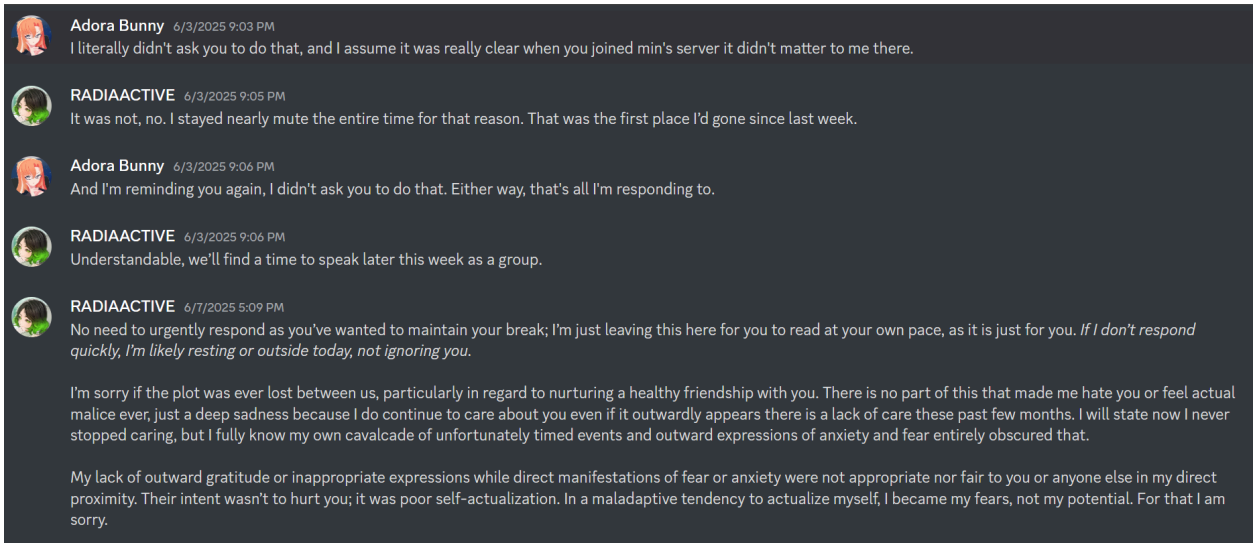
she claimed "oh I already reached out to him"
she reached out a day after I did
LOL
Momo Toirneach 6/5/2025 1:11 PM
Oh lord
Adora Bunny LOP 6/5/2025 5:11 PM
I think in the end, I'm just going to focus on knowing she is lying about her masters most likely, treated me poorly, and is not a good friend, and just distance and if she starts to attack me I take it so long as its not too much LOL
Not worth attacking her on illnesses, we have no way to prove anything

Momo Toirneach 6/5/2025 5:13 PM
Yeah that prob would be best . You have the best evidence with the fact that the time line makes 0 senses for her master

In the end after I calmed down a few hours later, I realized there's no reason to attack or say anything, especially not my concerns about her health, especially publicly and that my lack of trust wasn't worth dwelling on other than that I know she had lied to me about her education background, and had seen her resume myself. Even in my horrible mental state, I never wanted to end Radia's career during this, merely no longer work with her. I regret my past actions and emotional response here, and am not proud I spiraled in such a horrible way while I was hurt and began to let my thoughts race and question everything about Radia, because in the end that is what hurt Radia and others around me that love and support me. But I was also hurt as well. In the end, she also continued to talk poorly about me, and spread her own rumors against me but this doesn't matter. People are going to talk in private when they are hurt, and I only wish she let it stay there so we could have moved on instead of showing everything to the entire world. After this all went down, I began to cool down as well and realize I was going too far.

As for other doxxing claims, prove it. Same for any criminal claims. You are making the accusation, show me what you got or press charges, because you didn't share the full receipts and I just showed my entire incredibly uncomfortable message history with my former manager on the event of the "doxxing" who has now made this accusation against me under the guise of anonymity. If you're going to make claims about me, show me evidence. In fact, please show me evidence of every one of my wrongdoings, because in your document, you continued to only place more and more "testimonial" evidence and only used short screenshots without full context in any situation, in an attempt to weaponize larger creators against me with testimonies instead of giving actual proof. That's not evidence. That's word of mouth.

Anyways, continuing on here are all the messages with Radia that were done after this.



Adora Bunny 6/3/2025 9:03 PM
I literally didn't ask you to do that, and I assume it was really clear when you joined min's server it didn't matter to me there.

RADIAACTIVE 6/3/2025 9:05 PM
It was not, no. I stayed nearly mute the entire time for that reason. That was the first place I'd gone since last week.

Adora Bunny 6/3/2025 9:06 PM
And I'm reminding you again, I didn't ask you to do that. Either way, that's all I'm responding to.

RADIAACTIVE 6/3/2025 9:06 PM
Understandable, we'll find a time to speak later this week as a group.

RADIAACTIVE 6/7/2025 5:09 PM
No need to urgently respond as you've wanted to maintain your break; I'm just leaving this here for you to read at your own pace, as it is just for you. If I don't respond quickly, I'm likely resting or outside today, not ignoring you.

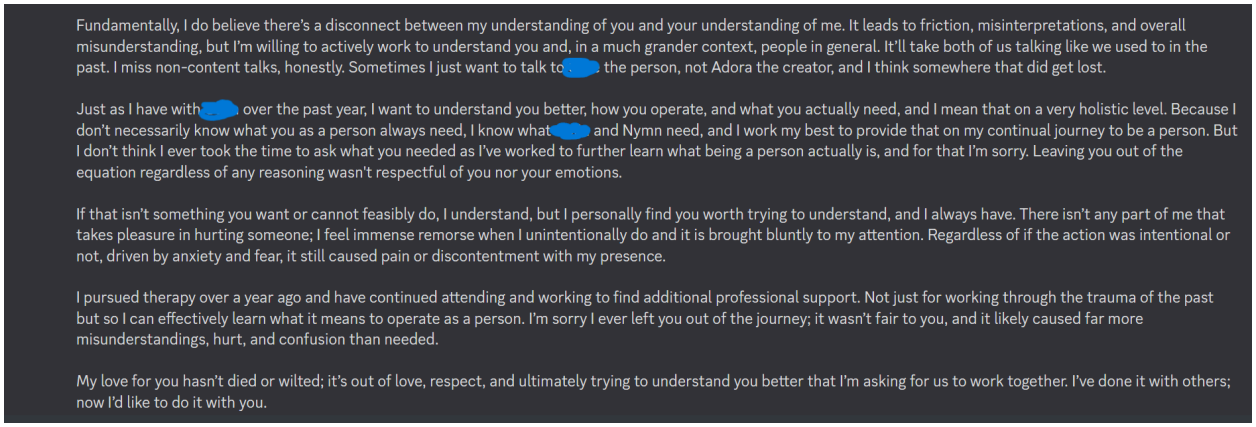
I'm sorry if the plot was ever lost between us, particularly in regard to nurturing a healthy friendship with you. There is no part of this that made me hate you or feel actual malice ever, just a deep sadness because I do continue to care about you even if it outwardly appears there is a lack of care these past few months. I will state now I never stopped caring, but I fully know my own cavalcade of unfortunately timed events and outward expressions of anxiety and fear entirely obscured that.

My lack of outward gratitude or inappropriate expressions while direct manifestations of fear or anxiety were not appropriate nor fair to you or anyone else in my direct proximity. Their intent wasn't to hurt you; it was poor self-actualization. In a maladaptive tendency to actualize myself, I became my fears, not my potential. For that I am sorry.

Radia's, Digi's and my legal first name are removed here below.



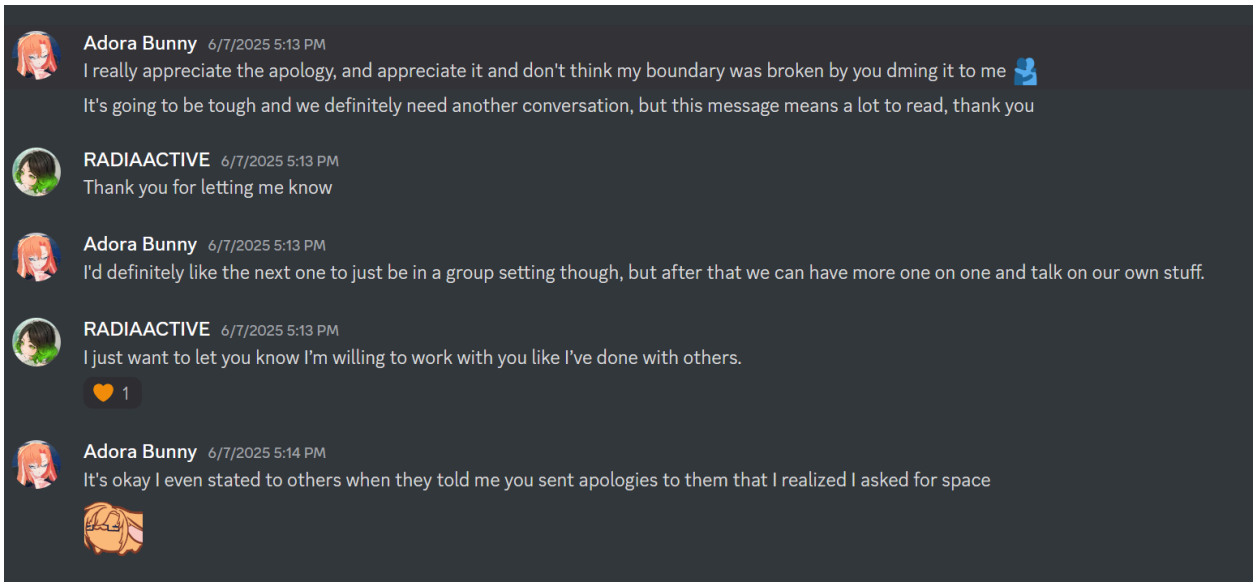
Fundamentally, I do believe there's a disconnect between my understanding of you and your understanding of me. It leads to friction, misinterpretations, and overall misunderstanding, but I'm willing to actively work to understand you and, in a much grander context, people in general. It'll take both of us talking like we used to in the past. I miss non-content talks, honestly. Sometimes I just want to talk to [redacted] the person, not Adora the creator, and I think somewhere that did get lost.

Just as I have with [redacted] over the past year, I want to understand you better, how you operate, and what you actually need, and I mean that on a very holistic level. Because I don't necessarily know what you as a person always need, I know what [redacted] and Nymn need, and I work my best to provide that on my continual journey to be a person. But I don't think I ever took the time to ask what you needed as I've worked to further learn what being a person actually is, and for that I'm sorry. Leaving you out of the equation regardless of any reasoning wasn't respectful of you nor your emotions.

If that isn't something you want or cannot feasibly do, I understand, but I personally find you worth trying to understand, and I always have. There isn't any part of me that takes pleasure in hurting someone; I feel immense remorse when I unintentionally do and it is brought bluntly to my attention. Regardless of if the action was intentional or not, driven by anxiety and fear, it still caused pain or discontentment with my presence.

I pursued therapy over a year ago and have continued attending and working to find additional professional support. Not just for working through the trauma of the past but so I can effectively learn what it means to operate as a person. I'm sorry I ever left you out of the journey; it wasn't fair to you, and it likely caused far more misunderstandings, hurt, and confusion than needed.

My love for you hasn't died or wilted; it's out of love, respect, and ultimately trying to understand you better that I'm asking for us to work together. I've done it with others; now I'd like to do it with you.



Adora Bunny 6/7/2025 5:13 PM
I really appreciate the apology, and appreciate it and don't think my boundary was broken by you dming it to me
It's going to be tough and we definitely need another conversation, but this message means a lot to read, thank you

RADIAACTIVE 6/7/2025 5:13 PM
Thank you for letting me know

Adora Bunny 6/7/2025 5:13 PM
I'd definitely like the next one to just be in a group setting though, but after that we can have more one on one and talk on our own stuff.

RADIAACTIVE 6/7/2025 5:13 PM
I just want to let you know I'm willing to work with you like I've done with others.

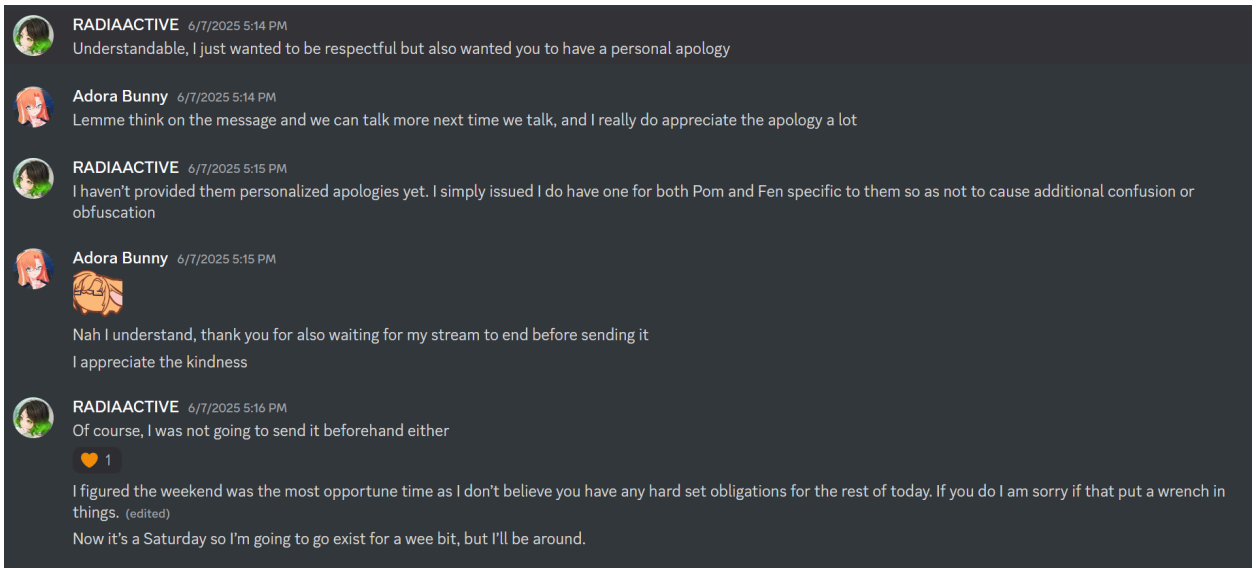
Adora Bunny 6/7/2025 5:14 PM
It's okay I even stated to others when they told me you sent apologies to them that I realized I asked for space



RADIAACTIVE 6/7/2025 5:14 PM
Understandable, I just wanted to be respectful but also wanted you to have a personal apology
Adora Bunny 6/7/2025 5:14 PM
Lemme think on the message and we can talk more next time we talk, and I really do appreciate the apology a lot
RADIAACTIVE 6/7/2025 5:15 PM
I haven't provided them personalized apologies yet. I simply issued I do have one for both Pom and Fen specific to them so as not to cause additional confusion or obfuscation
Adora Bunny 6/7/2025 5:15 PM
Nah I understand, thank you for also waiting for my stream to end before sending it
I appreciate the kindness
RADIAACTIVE 6/7/2025 5:16 PM
Of course, I was not going to send it beforehand either
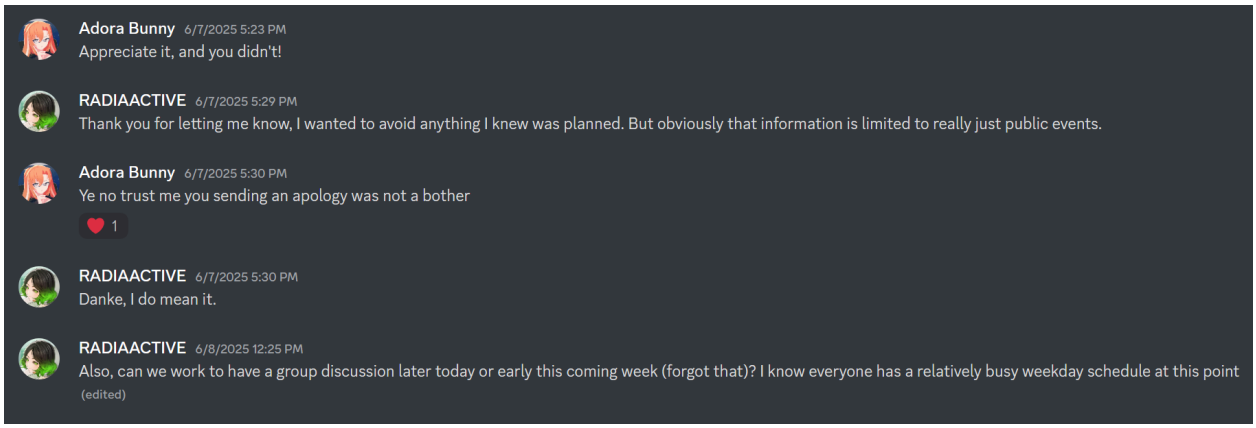
I figured the weekend was the most opportune time as I don't believe you have any hard set obligations for the rest of today. If you do I am sorry if that put a wrench in things. (edited)
Now it's a Saturday so I'm going to go exist for a wee bit, but I'll be around.



Adora Bunny 6/7/2025 5:23 PM
Appreciate it, and you didn't!
RADIAACTIVE 6/7/2025 5:29 PM
Thank you for letting me know, I wanted to avoid anything I knew was planned. But obviously that information is limited to really just public events.
Adora Bunny 6/7/2025 5:30 PM
Ye no trust me you sending an apology was not a bother
1
RADIAACTIVE 6/7/2025 5:30 PM
Danke, I do mean it.
RADIAACTIVE 6/8/2025 12:25 PM
Also, can we work to have a group discussion later today or early this coming week (forgot that)? I know everyone has a relatively busy weekday schedule at this point (edited)

After this portion, we worked on making a call happen. The apology did hit me by surprise and made me want to start to reconsider and make things work. Here is the final call between myself, Pom, Fen, and Radia as Project STIM.

In the beginning, the first portion of the call has a one minute cut due to Radia speaking private information of another party that we do not want to share for this, so the “that’s good to hear” is in response to that. We did not disclose at the time with her about knowing about her education background, because we felt at the time it wasn’t going to be productive or helpful to have everyone move on or heal.

During this conversation we let her drive the conversation and wanted her to be able to say her side. At this time, I had begun to already calm down and started even with all the previous hurt that this could be healed due to conversations with good friends who wanted to help resolve this. That is why in this call I am willing to be friends potentially again. In the end though my feelings have since changed.

During this call as well, Radia admits she had been talking to other people about the situation. It's well within people's rights to talk about when a friendship is hurting in private with other friends and loved ones, and that includes both sides.

Here are several important timestamps during the call:

The beginning of the call is edited to remove around one minute of footage near the 0:58-1:00 mark when Radia is talking about her day because it involved private personal information of an uninvolved party.

At 19:28 and 24:20 Radia admits that she had in fact talked badly about us specifically on that stream.

At 25:50 I clarified a point that Radia had made issue with during the document of abuse and gave my clarification with her.

I ask you to please listen to all our words during this call. I genuinely meant what I said at the time and thought everything could be better, and thought we could come back from this.

Radia decided how to announce her departure on her own terms, and myself, Pom, and Fen decided on what the Project STIM side announcement would be. At no point did we tell her to lie or claim why she was leaving, and worked with her to release what she wanted to say on her own terms. In the end the truth of the matter is Fen, Pom, and myself had asked her to leave, as shown in this call. After this call Radia no longer reached out or showed any interest to talk to me. After this call Alicia cut ties with Radia on her own. I do not control my friends and Alicia is an adult with her own actions, as seen in the DMs posted by Alicia on her twitter.

I realized the friendship was over with Radia, and began to move on when it was clear she was not responding to me anymore. The wound was still fresh at the time and I was hurt, and I told close friends about the situation to try and heal. I can't control people talking about this, but in the end, it was my experiences and pain and I'm allowed to seek comfort in private, just as Radia was as well.

The only communication between this time and Offkai was me asking for her to delete her copy of the Project STIM website. Her messages were deleted and I did not save them and they aren't relevant thankfully.

During this period of time after the fallout, my depression only worsened. My mental health continued to deteriorate as I only focused on work at best due to losing my best friend. My house became full of trash, and I was not taking care of my hygiene. I didn't like myself or know what to think anymore. At Offkai, I told three friends about the situation in person that I hadn't been able to talk about before with it. I do not apologize for talking to my friends about my pain, just as I'm sure you spoke about your pain with me to others.

I then went into a call with Lazerpig at Offkai, where the statements on accusations of the document came forward. At this time, I was confused because to me there never was a document, and I repeated to him over and over, there was no document, because I sincerely believed in my heart there wasn't, as I hadn't made one like my manager suggested. Unfortunately, the issues list we partially went over during the intervention that I had sent to Digi was perceived as one. I felt immense regret and immediately sent Radia a message after I realized this after Offkai what Lazerpig was talking about so I could open lines of communication and help settle misunderstandings. She never responded to me.

Hey Rae, I just wanted to say, I think I know why everything has happened recently and it was my fault on the biggest miscommunication of my fucking life
We wrote notes to help us during the intervention call, so we could remember to talk about stuff we were concerned about, and keep on track. In my stupidity when Digi asked for what happened and fen told me to send over some bulletin points of what was said, I just sent a poorly edited down version.
There's no cancel doc, there never will be one, and we never wanted one. But I can fully see why you saw it that way. I never wrote one for the guy who assaulted me, why would I write one about my best friend? I'm so sorry for my incompetence and all the unnecessary pain it caused
If you wanna talk more we can, please focus your ire at me not pom and fen

At this point I had hurt Pom and Fen by realizing what I did when I sent the intervention list to DigitalVagrant, which is why I asked her to focus her ire on me and not Pom and Fen, as I had made this situation worse for everyone by my carelessness. I hurt two of my best friends at the time and it began to make me spiral worse in my depression.

After Offkai, Aliciaxlife brought me into an amazing intervention with four other good friends, having noticed my mental health was deteriorating and how my behaviors were going towards my friends. She gave a strong heart to heart with me, and I took it as best I could. Unfortunately, after the intervention, my mental health still got worse, and I began to believe everyone hated me. I will mention this now, my mental health is not Alicia's fault, and if not for her intervention, I would never have gotten the help I needed. As it got worse throughout the week, on the Saturday I announced my hiatus I put a painkiller bottle in my hand, and was ready to swallow all of it before I realized I wanted to live because I couldn't hurt my friends and parents by taking my life. If not for a crisis counselor I spoke with and my parents after, I would not be here today to write this. I spoke with this trained and trusted crisis counselor on discord. Here is me contacting the crisis counselor:

Hey question, are you emotionally available rn? I saw your post and although my issues aren't related to a friend passing, I am in need of help and don't know what to do rn
6/28/2025 4:54 PM
Sure!

After my suicide attempt, I announced and wrote my hiatus, which was posted over an hour later. I decided the hiatus was necessary due to this attempt, so I took several weeks off to recenter because I didn't like who I was at this point, having hurt Pom, Fen, and others in Alicia's circle and almost taken my life over everything going on. Suicide is never the answer, and I would never wish this on anyone. I also never once spoke publicly on these issues other than I had contacted a crisis counselor on my return stream, nor about Radia, because I wanted to move on. She however, could not.

After I had made my hiatus announcement due to my own suicide attempt and having hurt Pom, Fen, Alicia, and other friends in Alicia's friend circle, Radia then posted an announcement to her community about my hiatus.

@RadiaPing For those who were not present, this is the written statement from today:
Good evening, folks. I'm sure there has been some relative curiosity into why I have not been present on Adora's streams nor she on mine. As outlined by her hiatus announcement, she is taking a period of mental and self-restoration spurred on by a negative mental space, which caused her to do and say things that she regrets. I will not be detailing actions taken, as I'm not in the business of sharing information that should ultimately be kept private.
This past month has left me deeply saddened by the circumstances and actions taken, while in the immediate and foreseeable future I will be continuing to embark on my own path in regard to my friendship with Adora. I only express my deepest sympathies and support. While we could grow to nurture that bond, the future is uncertain, but it is certain that for now it's best that we move on our own paths.
Please know this changes nothing on a community level; it is merely a period of requested space on my end. Please continue to use emotes or server tags as you desire.

@everyone @AdoraPing
Hi everyone,
I've noticed some speculation around my current hiatus, so I wanted to gently clarify: this break is something I chose for my own mental wellness and personal reflection. It's not related to anyone else or any external situation.
Out of respect for myself at this moment, I won't be speaking further on it, and I appreciate your understanding, kindness, and continued support.

I sent the first DM below after she made her public post about my hiatus to her community, and then after I received no response, I sent another message the morning after I made my own statement, because once again I wanted to communicate.

Figured I'd mention as well but even during hiatus my communication channels are open if you ever wanna talk about stuff.
Therapy going well and my house is finally cleaner than ever.

So since there is now a public statement, I'm going to say this again. Our situation has nothing to do with this hiatus. Do not speak on my behalf. You have no actual idea why I took this hiatus, because you have not been speaking with me for almost two weeks. My communication lines remain open as well!
Adora Bunny LOP 7/2/2025 10:27 AM
That's great, but once again, do not speak on my behalf publicly.

Here is evidence once again showing she had removed all her DMs with me in an attempt to hinder my own defense or hide information:

That's great, but once again, do not speak on my behalf publicly.

For full context on this exchange, Radia had made a statement on my hiatus without having known any of this previous information of my suicide attempt and why I had attempted suicide. I had once again reached out to extend an olive branch and move on. She had not talked to me since that previous call and never sent me any replies during this time with the exception of the message she later deleted in our DMs.

At this time, my suicide attempt was not public knowledge. I immediately sent her a message, first out of kindness, but then realized after no response I wanted to clarify to my own community that she was not speaking for me or involved. She inserted herself into my suicide attempt without knowing what it was about by commenting on my hiatus, as she had not talked to me in weeks. I was devastated, and told her that our situation had nothing to do with my hiatus. I ended up making a statement publicly about my mental health due to her announcement, as Radia did not know my mental health situation at the time. Later in the day, I was sent a DM by Alicia that she had responded and posted about Radia's statement.

@everyone Hey folks!! So I was made aware of a bullshit statement by Radia about Adora. I want to say it is bullshit. Adora is taking a break because her and I had an amazing heart to heart about life and growth. This didn't involve Radia. Don't know why she is making it about herself LOL.
You all know I don't fuck with Radia after she pressured you guys to donate to her and got mad that someone mentioned supporting me. Now this is just getting weird af. Here is her random ass statement she made in her community.
Adora is completely fine. This was a decision she made after a heart to heart with ME. Don't know why other mofos acting like weird. Anyways Adora will be returning of course! Just gonna be recording Logan solo while she's on break much love rats. (edited)

@RadiaPing For those who were not present, this is the written statement from today:
Good evening, folks. I'm sure there has been some relative curiosity into why I have not been present on Adora's streams nor she on

Alicia ended up making a response because she was heavily involved in my hiatus, and was confused as to why Radia was inserting herself into it when it didn't involve her and the gravity of my hiatus. Pom was the one who told Alicia about it, not me, as stated by Alicia on twitter. At this point I no longer wanted to say anything to anyone, and just continued to keep my distance and realized that I would not be able to work with Radia to any extent.

At this point I asked to step away from a DnD campaign because I couldn't work with Radia at all anymore and felt there was no room to change here, after having had her insert herself as the reason on my suicide attempt. I told this to all members of the group and let them keep playing. I did not demand Radia leave, just that I am leaving and she had hurt me publicly, which she did. I did not want to get into that I had attempted suicide, just that I wanted to walk away.

I don't want to blame others or anyone for attempting to take my life because I spiraled due to my environment and factors around me. It is not Radia's or anyone's fault that I spiraled and came out from this. What matters is that I'm alive.

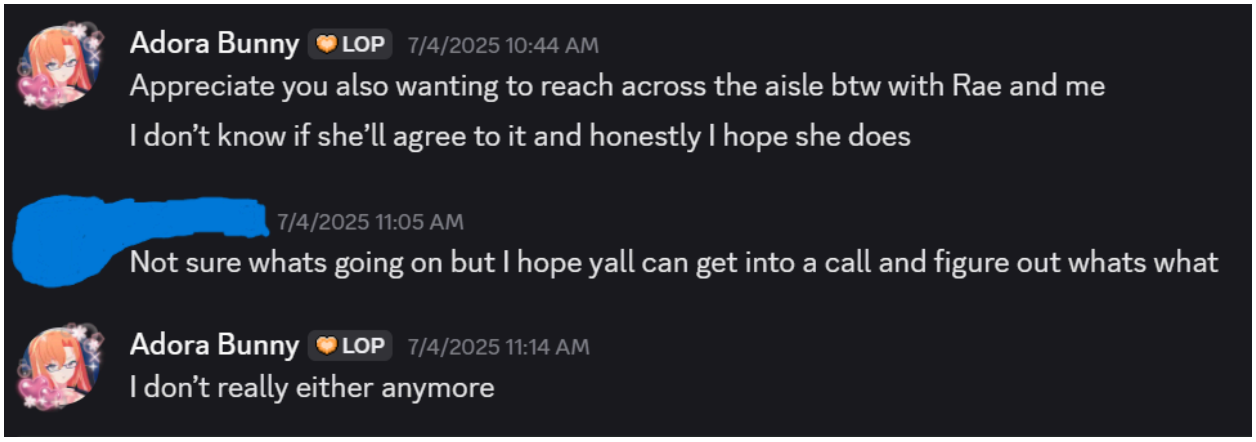
I definitely do not think I can go forward with DnD at this time with Radia involved. She refuses to respond to my messages while also making public statements on my behalf on reasons why I took a hiatus.
I took the hiatus because my fucking house was a disaster
and my hygiene was bad
And my depression was making me act rash and badly towards EVERYONE
I haven't talked to her in weeks and chose the hiatus for myself
So I'm going to be the bigger person and step away.

As well after this, two members in the D&D group had reached out to want to try and mend things since they knew of our tension and issues after I had spoken about all of this. I immediately responded in agreement. I do not have this group DM anymore as I have been removed from it. Radia never replied publicly in the group DM, and instead acted in silence and never actually wanted to settle this with me through them. This goes once again against Radia's narrative that I had never tried to reach out or bury the hatchet, and that she was always ready and willing to do so. I wish I could share it, however I was removed and didn't think to save it. Once again, she hid parts of the narrative to better fit hers.

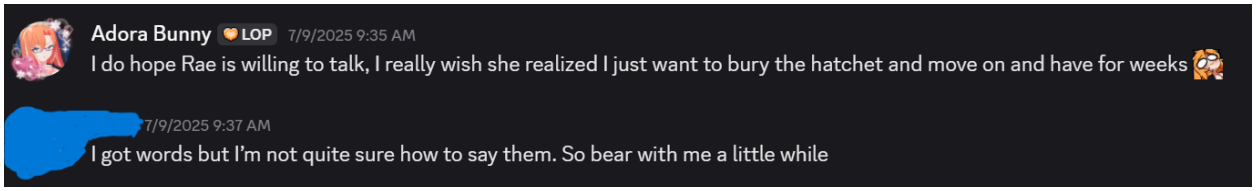
Here are three different censored screenshot chains of me reaching out to three different folks who had offered to help mediate between myself and Radia. I had always been trying to reach out so we could move on after my hiatus, but in the end Radia would not come to the table, then claim I instead was not trying to solve this.

Mediator 1:



Adora Bunny LOP 7/4/2025 10:44 AM
Appreciate you also wanting to reach across the aisle btw with Rae and me
I don't know if she'll agree to it and honestly I hope she does
[redacted] 7/4/2025 11:05 AM
Not sure whats going on but I hope yall can get into a call and figure out whats what
Adora Bunny LOP 7/4/2025 11:14 AM
I don't really either anymore

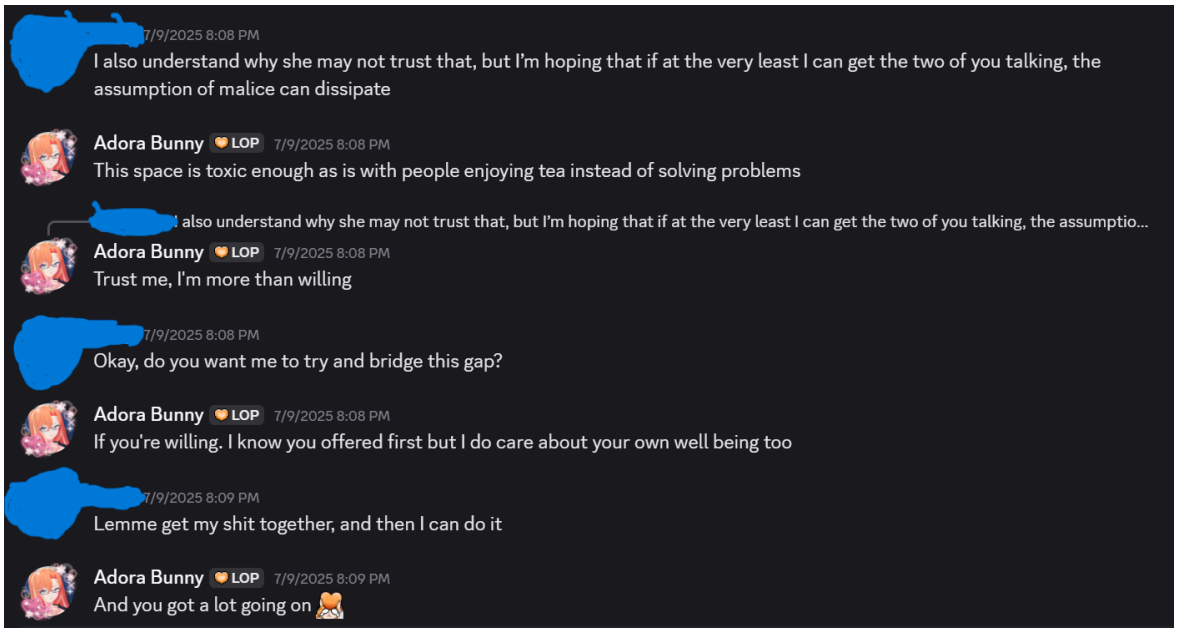
Mediator 2:



Adora Bunny LOP 7/9/2025 9:35 AM
I do hope Rae is willing to talk, I really wish she realized I just want to bury the hatchet and move on and have for weeks
[redacted] 7/9/2025 9:37 AM
I got words but I'm not quite sure how to say them. So bear with me a little while

I also reached out to a third mediator who was friendly and wanted to help both me and Radia. During this conversation I admitted to him I had done wrong as well as that she hurt me. The third party agreed and wanted to help bridge this gap.

Mediator 3:



[redacted] 7/9/2025 8:08 PM
I also understand why she may not trust that, but I'm hoping that if at the very least I can get the two of you talking, the assumption of malice can dissipate
Adora Bunny LOP 7/9/2025 8:08 PM
This space is toxic enough as is with people enjoying tea instead of solving problems

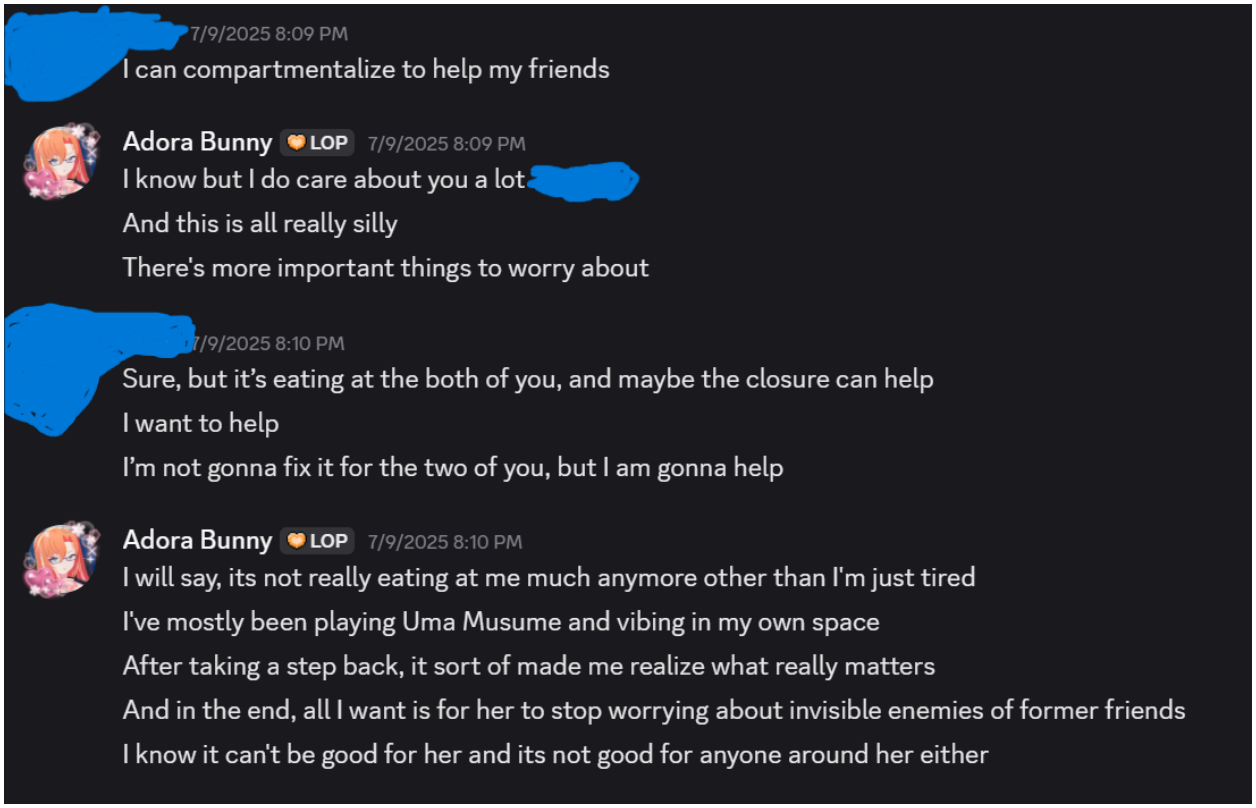
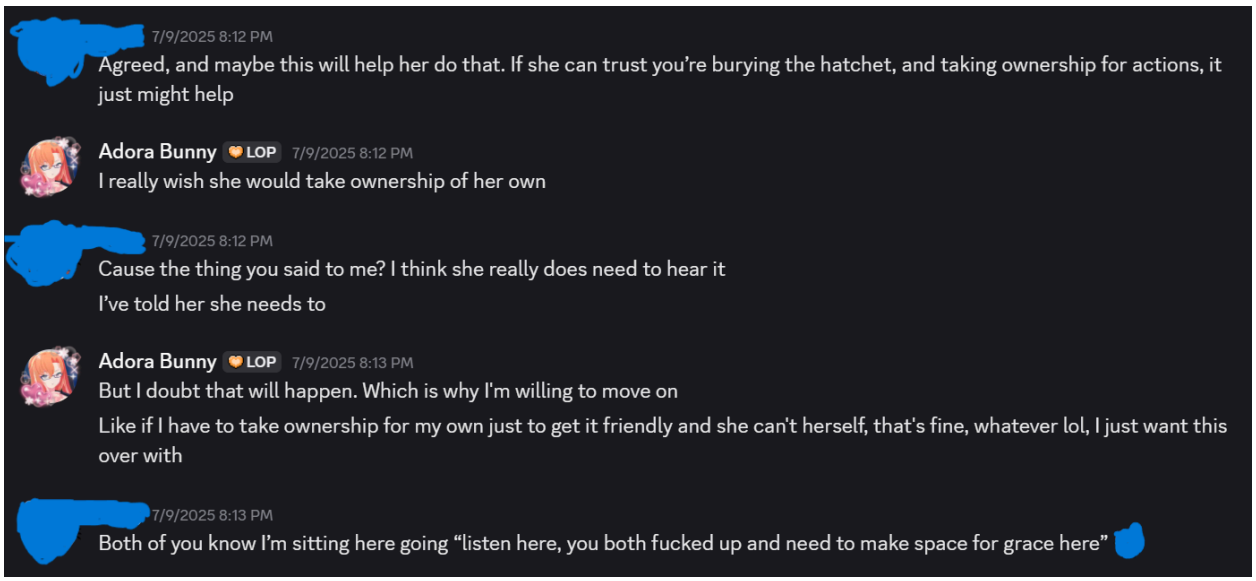
Adora Bunny LOP 7/9/2025 8:08 PM
Trust me, I'm more than willing
[redacted] 7/9/2025 8:08 PM
Okay, do you want me to try and bridge this gap?
Adora Bunny LOP 7/9/2025 8:08 PM
If you're willing. I know you offered first but I do care about your own well being too
[redacted] 7/9/2025 8:09 PM
Lemme get my shit together, and then I can do it
Adora Bunny LOP 7/9/2025 8:09 PM
And you got a lot going on



7/9/2025 8:09 PM
I can compartmentalize to help my friends
Adora Bunny LOP 7/9/2025 8:09 PM
I know but I do care about you a lot
And this is all really silly
There's more important things to worry about
7/9/2025 8:10 PM
Sure, but it's eating at the both of you, and maybe the closure can help
I want to help
I'm not gonna fix it for the two of you, but I am gonna help
Adora Bunny LOP 7/9/2025 8:10 PM
I will say, its not really eating at me much anymore other than I'm just tired
I've mostly been playing Uma Musume and vibing in my own space
After taking a step back, it sort of made me realize what really matters
And in the end, all I want is for her to stop worrying about invisible enemies of former friends
I know it can't be good for her and its not good for anyone around her either



7/9/2025 8:12 PM
Agreed, and maybe this will help her do that. If she can trust you're burying the hatchet, and taking ownership for actions, it just might help
Adora Bunny LOP 7/9/2025 8:12 PM
I really wish she would take ownership of her own
7/9/2025 8:12 PM
Cause the thing you said to me? I think she really does need to hear it
I've told her she needs to
Adora Bunny LOP 7/9/2025 8:13 PM
But I doubt that will happen. Which is why I'm willing to move on Like if I have to take ownership for my own just to get it friendly and she can't herself, that's fine, whatever lol, I just want this over with
7/9/2025 8:13 PM
Both of you know I'm sitting here going "listen here, you both fucked up and need to make space for grace here"

I'm keeping these three people anonymous for their safety as they were third parties I had reached out to who genuinely wanted to try and mend things between me and Radia.

At this point going forward, I never brought up Radia again myself to anyone other than the mediator one last time after. The only time I ever spoke about her was if I was asked, and I said "Everything is fine", "I wish her the best" or "I've moved on." or were myself trying to find ways to extend an olive branch to settle this issue with Radia through a third party. I would then post usually Uma Musume memes or strategy with friends or talk about something else like Nightreign with friends. I had moved on and was getting help, including therapy, and spending time with friends. During my hiatus however, Radia could not stop bringing up these past issues publicly, despite myself, Fenari, and Pomato never saying anything AT ALL in public.

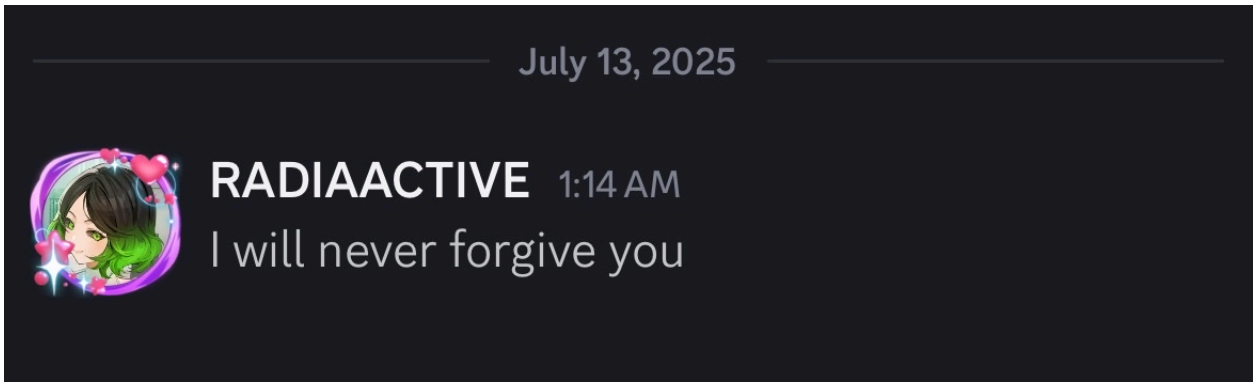
During my hiatus while I was trying to reach out to her both of these clips happened:

Here is her talking about her leaving STIM, starting at 3:56, as well as stating once again she “departed” when instead we had asked her to leave and then accused Pom, Fen and myself of childishness as well as said poorly of our group when none of us have said anything to the matter publicly other than this tweet. She also speaks further on it after 5:00.
01h59m00s-02h05m10s-radiaactive-chunked.mp4

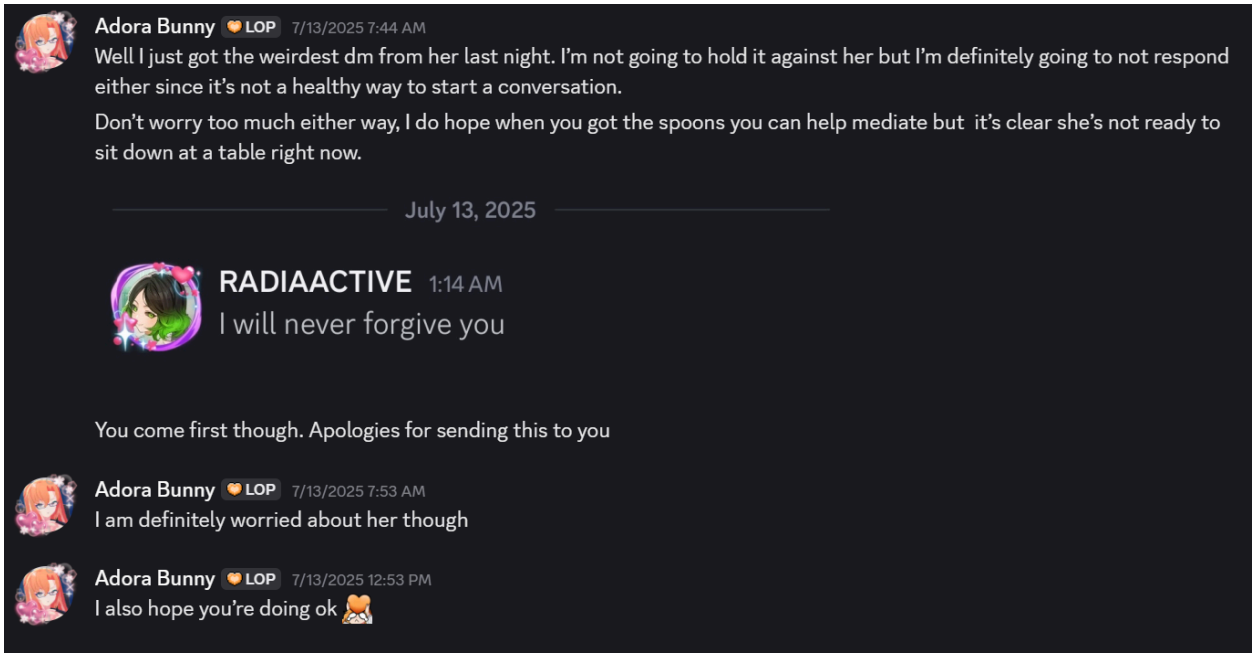
At 8:58 in the next clip you can hear her begin to speak on her wanting to release this despite once again me wanting to have during this entire time de-escalate and end this as well as talk about the situation publicly without naming me. Feel free to watch the whole clip for full context.
(radia)02h07m06s-02h21m56s-radiaactive-chunked.mp4

The day I returned from my hiatus, this was the last message I ever got from Radia before she contacted me on 7/27.



This was her only attempt to reach out to me for weeks after she had not responded to any of my messages. During this time, I had spoken with other third parties and had tried to talk over this and move on from this situation. I also reached out to the previous third mediator to try and figure out why she had sent me this message and I only learned days later that this was sent during her suicide attempt. I genuinely hope you are able to get the help you need, because I know what it’s like when life feels hopeless and you want to end it all. Many people care about you, and I’m happy you’re still alive. I just wish you would have responded to my attempts to communicate over five weeks ago.

I sent this below to the third mediator shortly after waking up to it. I did not get a response.



Adora Bunny LOP 7/13/2025 7:44 AM
Well I just got the weirdest dm from her last night. I'm not going to hold it against her but I'm definitely going to not respond either since it's not a healthy way to start a conversation.
Don't worry too much either way, I do hope when you got the spoons you can help mediate but it's clear she's not ready to sit down at a table right now.
July 13, 2025
RADIAACTIVE 1:14 AM

I am definitely worried about her though
Adora Bunny LOP 7/13/2025 12:53 PM
I also hope you're doing ok

The three anonymous people were no longer further involved in any way after July 13th.

In the end she never agreed to reach out until a week ago on the 27th. She reached out to me with demands to have a call through an anonymous and neutral third party. At the time, I was dealing with my mom going into surgery for her hip replacement, so I asked for an extension of time so instead the call was done on July 30th. I readily and happily agreed, thinking we could finally move on. She stated in her DMs with me that are now deleted that she would need a "neutral party" in the call, but unfortunately this neutral party was Lazerpig, who helped write the cancel doc against me. Lazerpig is not a neutral party nor was one at this point in time. Radia and Lazerpig did not want to move on, they instead interrogated me, especially when Lazerpig was never involved in this situation, but instead involved himself.

I was immediately at the beginning of the call threatened with legal action, so in my own safety to protect myself, I responded with very vague statements to not incriminate myself. This is also why I sound very repetitive in the call.

Here is the recording of the call:
2025-07-30 17-11-35.mkv

In the call once again I reiterated I wanted to move on, and was not talking about her. Unfortunately, they did not take it to heart and dropped their document, and now we are here. Throughout this interrogation, I was accused of everything from causing her attempt at suicide, her roommate dropping out of college despite me not having talked to her roommate in over 6 weeks in any capacity, and other claims when I hadn't talked to her in weeks or about her as well, and called a liar despite shown no evidence that I had been "talking behind her back" since my hiatus began. The only times I had ever talked about her was with third parties to try and reach out and mend this situation so we could both move on. I will not be naming these third parties out of respect for their health as they were only trying to look out for both of us.

In conclusion, two friends genuinely had hurt each other, both had attempted suicide and were toxic for each other, and in the end it would have been for the best if we both just moved on, but Radia decided to come after me with a document instead despite my best efforts to keep communication open. Nobody committed a crime, and this should never have had to be written. We both messed up and were not good friends for each other in the end. I don't know if having asked her to explain her education background when I found out would have changed anything, but in the end I just want to move on with my life and have since my hiatus over 6 weeks ago. She continued to speak in her document that she had been willing to move on from this for months, when in reality she had threatened me with a lawyer as well as never responded to any of my communications or attempts to reach out after I had no longer been speaking about her for a month and only wanted to move on, as well as sent me the only message of "I will never forgive you". Thank you to all those who tried to reach out and mend this so it wouldn't go public, your hearts were in the right place and I know you tried your best, and I hold no ill will against any of you for trying to make communication happen.

I am not going to debunk every testimony against me that is without evidence, believe in the end what you want, because I cannot give evidence for things I did not do. Yes, I talked with my friends, and Radia did with hers, which she also admitted to in the second call. Looking to friends for support is not a crime. Many people giving testimonies against me have never asked for my side, declined to hear my side, or asked for my side in bad faith. Their minds were already made up. But I am giving you everything I have here, as well as my entire side of the events and all recordings and screenshots I have, whether good looking for me or not. I did not manicure or curate this document to make me look good, I wrote it to tell the truth.

As for anyone else who has made statements about me, my communication lines are open if you want to talk and settle things or have issues with me. Before this point I already was about to have to make a financial decision to potentially leave content and return to being an engineer in order to pay my bills.

All I want to do is move on with my life, and have been for the past six weeks. I know I messed up, but so did she. Let's just move on like we should have a month ago like I wanted and asked for.

Thank you for reading and listening.
